Mill Valley Bans Teen Dances After Near Riot

Council Doubts Police Can Cope With Trouble; 'Outsiders' Blamed

The Mill Valley City Council last night placed a temporary ban on teen-age dances at the American Legion Hall, after the police chief reported that a Saturday night dance attended by more than 400 persons erupted into a fight and "could have led to a riot."

The council ruled that Kustom Keys, a recently formed teen-age dance band can not, for the present, hold the dances. A permit to Winston Searles, manager of the dances, will be held in abeyance.

Members of the council and other city officials pointed out, however, they find no fault with Searles or his group—or for that matter with teen-age dances.

Council members were worried about the large attendance, and whether Mill Valley's small police force could cope with serious trouble and the "outsiders" who come from miles around.

Police Chief James P. McGowan first revealed the fact there had been trouble in a letter read at a late hour at last night's council meeting.

"It appears these dances have gone beyond control of teen-agers," he said. "Difficulties at these dances have

2 Airmen Beaten; 9 Youths Seized

Gang Fight Follows Chase On Highway

Four carloads of Sonoma youths chased two airmen from Travis Air Force Base into Marin County this morning and gave them a beating with bottles, boards and fists, knocking one unconscious.

The gang fight erupted at Black Point cutoff shortly after 1 a.m., climaxing a high-speed chase down Highway 101 with cars passing each other and weaving back and forth over several lanes.

Nine youths ranging in age from 16 to 21 were caught by Sonoma police and turned over to Marin County. They were jailed about 5 a.m. today in San Rafael on suspicion of assault and battery and assault with a deadly weapon. Two ringleaders were believed to be still at large.

Victims of the beating are Orval Raymond Boehler, 20, and John Allen Buehler, both attached to the 1501st Air Terminal Squadron at Travis Field. Both are airmen third class.

INJURIES TOLD

Boehler, battered with a bottle and a two-by-four board, suffered a lacerated left middle finger, smashed right index finger, cuts on his temple and head, welts on his back and sides, and a possible shoulder fracture. He lost his glasses and wristwatch in the scuffle.

In Marin jail today were Ernest Louie Minelli, 18; Robert Murray Molesworth, 20, Ronald LeRoy Silveria, 21, Ronald Arthur Martell, 18, Gordon Scott Johnson, 20, Ralph Gonsalves Ferreira, 19, and Donald Eugene Shelton, 19.

IN JUVENILE HALL

Two other, 16 and 17, were placed in Marin Juvenile Hall. Johnson is from Glen Ellen, and all the others from Sonoma.

The argument apparently stemmed from the airmen's interest in three young girls who were driving around the town of Sonoma with one youth, sheriff's deputies reported.

Boehler and Buehler told sheriff's deputies they were driving around Sonoma last night when they spotted a youth with three girls in his convertible. They followed the car in an effort to get acquainted with the girls. The youth told them to stay away. Police in Sonoma ordered the airmen to leave.

When the airmen headed

MARIN RANKS IN CELLAR IN THIS INDUSTRY

Marin County has 1,700 beef cattle, placing it 57th among all California counties, the California Cattlemen's Assn. reported today.

California has 58 counties, and it's illegal to keep cattle in San Francisco County.

But anyway, "at a conservative estimate of $200 per head" the association noted, the Marin cattle are worth $340,000. It's estimated that land, buildings, equipment and feed raise the aggregate cattle industry investment in Marin to more than $800,000.

Things are really bully in the beef business up in neighboring Sonoma County. It has 18,500 head. The whole state has 2,445,200 head, making it the ninth largest beef cattle state in the nation.

Bank Holdup Man Enters Guilty Plea

William (Dudie) Williams pleaded guilty today before Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman to armed robbery of the Point Reyes Station branch of the Bank of America on Aug. 17, thereby facing a maximum 25-year sentence.

Two additional charges of kidnaping and possession of a sawed-off shotgun, included in the indictment handed down against Williams yesterday by the federal grand jury, were asked to be dismissed by James J. Duryea, San Francisco defense attorney. There was no objection to the motion by Donald B. Constine, assistant U.S. district attorney.

Judge Goodman warned the 31-year-old ex-convict from Santa Rosa that his sentence would depend on his cooperation in helping authorities recover the missing $10,500 from the robbery loot which totaled more than $13,000.

The death penalty charge of kidnaping resulted from Williams forcing the bank manager, A. E. Cencio of Petaluma, to accompany him after the holdup on a wild ride. He released Cencia in Samuel P. Taylor State Park.

Terence Chester Corkery, 50, of Sausalito, also charged by the grand jury with being Williams' accomplice in the robbery, is free on $1,000 bail. Corkery, who accepted part of the loot and hid it in Lagunitas, was ordered by U.S. Commissioned Joseph Karesh to appear in district court Sept. 15.

Williams remained in custody today under $50,000 bail.

Judge Goodman referred the case to the probation department and set Sept. 10 for a report and for sentencing.

Willis, Wife Guilty; New Trial Sought

Dr. and Mrs. Jack E. Willis of Mill Valley, convicted yesterday on several counts of performing illegal abortions, will fight for a new trial next Tuesday at 10 a.m.

In the meantime, the 41-year-old obstetrician and his wife Josephine, a nurse, will remain at liberty on $2,500 bail each.

Through his attorney, Leslie Gillen, the doctor indicated he would continue to care for his patients at his office at 17 Throckmorton avenue, Mill Valley.

JURY'S VERDICT

A jury of three men and nine women, sitting in the superior court of Judge Thomas F. Keating, reached a verdict at 3 p.m., after four hours of deliberation. Jury Foreman David G. Arter, an insurance adjuster from Sausalito, announced the verdict: Dr. Willis guilty of seven out of nine counts charged, and Mrs. Willis guilty of five counts out of six.

Penalty can range anywhere from probation to state prison. Maximum penalty is two to five years in prison on each count.

Both the doctor and his blonde wife heard the verdict calmly, with no outward show of emotion. They later thanked the court attaches "for being so kind to us during the trial."

USUAL PRACTICE

Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich, prosecutor, opposed the defense motion for the Willises to remain at liberty on bail. He pointed out that the usual practice in the case of persons convicted of felonies is to turn them over to the sheriff for confinement, unless there are unusual circumstances. "I see no unusual circumstances in this case," said Weissich.

But defense attorney Gillen said the Willises have been in Mill Valley for seven years and have an unblemished record.

Throughout the trial, the Agreement Reached In Roofer Strike

Marin County roofing contractors should be able to get their 50 to 60 union employees back to work tomorrow as result of agreement reached last night, it was announced today.

A strike by Roofers Union Local 121, had entered its third week. Demands originally included a 40-cent-hourly wage increase were rejected by the six to eight roofing contractors in this county. Last night's settlement was on a basis of a boost of 20 cents an hour.

The new rate, $3.70 an hour, is to be retroactive to Aug. 15. The new contract will run to Aug. 15, 1960.

Union demands for paid holidays, pension plan and changes in contract wording were not touched upon in the final settlement, reached by a negotiating committee with one Marin representatives, Herbert Christ of Marin County Roofing Co. in San Rafael.

Contracts in both Marin County and Monterey-Santa Cruz Counties, the latter covered by another local, expired Aug. 15. The contractors' negotiating committee was set up on an areawide basis to seek one contract covering as large a California area as possible.

Tiburon Fire Board To Air Appointment

The Tiburon Fire Protection District Commission called a special meeting for 5:30 p.m. today in the Tiburon boulevard firehouse to discuss the appointment by the county board of supervisors of Fred Mantegani to the fire board vacancy created by resignation of Howard I. McGill.

"We will discuss sending a letter to the board of supervisors requesting that this appointment be discussed at their Tuesday meeting," said chairman Jon E. Stanton.

Yesterday the four commissioners expressed resentment of the way in which the appointment was made by the supervisors. Commissioners had set next Wednesday as the date of a public hearing on petitions from those interested in becoming commissioner.

Hospitable Japanese Family Life Impresses Marin Boys On Y Tour

By DIANA BRUCE

A three-day stay with Japanese families in the city of Hiroshima, devastated by an atom bomb in the last days of World War II and now re-built, proved the high point of a YMCA-sponsored tour of Japan by three Marin boys.

The three, now back home again, are Richard (Butch) Brear, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Brear of 14 Bretano way, Greenbrae; Edwin (Ned) Griffith, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Griffith, Lagunitas road, Ross, and Roger Siemens, 16, son of Dr. and Mrs. John C. Siemens, 10 Turnagain road, Kentfield. All will be juniors at Redwood High School.

Neither the re-building of Hiroshima nor hazardous traffic in its streets made so great an impression on the boys as their chance to see how a Japanese family lives.

Ned was slightly more lionized than the other two because his adopted family was that of Dr. Tatsuo Morito, president of Hiroshima University, vice president of UNESCO in Japan, and former Japanese minister of education.

"We were treated like kings," Ned said. "Every time I came in, they polished my shoes. One day my shoes were polished four times."

Roger Siemens found that his family was equally hospitable. He was taken around by the family's 17-year-old son and his friends. The family "had a small embroidery shop in their home and worked all day and all night," he reported.

Butch stayed with the family of a Hiroshima banker. Butch thought the 16-year-old son in the family spoke no English until the last evening. That night the older daughter, who had served as his translator, cook and guide, was out of the room and suddenly the son broke the silence with a few words of English and a halting conversation was under way.

The real reason for the boys' eight-week trip to Japan was to attend the YMCA International Older Boys Camp on an island near Kobe. They and six other boys from the Bay Area attended as delegates from the San Francisco YMCA. The three Marin youths belong to the Stags Hi-Y Club of the Marin "Y."

The conference was held from July 22 to 31 at an island camp grounds of the Kobe YMCA. In attendance were 130 Japanese students, American Field Service students studying in Japan, and representatives from Singapore, Malaya and Hong Kong.

"Broken English and broken Japanese were the two official languages at camp," according to Roger. "The language might, at first, seem to be a barrier. But on the contrary, with everyone trying to figure out what the other person was saying, it bound the camp together. You would go through some real stupid explanation sometimes but it was all part of camp.

"Our room and board at the camp were not the best, but we have found much worse elsewhere in Japan. Most of us slept on wooden floors of tents and bunks in cabins that were covered with a mat of thin straw. We got a blanket to cover us but it was always too warm. These beds were really hard but we always managed to get to sleep.

"The food, being a major concern in most of our lives, was not so good as we could have eaten. It was always Japanese style and we always had cabbage."

But—they had four meals a day—one being known as "tea time." And they gained weight.

Their tour, made mainly by steam and electric trains, took them to Yokohama, Tokyo, Shoko Island, Osaka, Kyoto, Nara, Nagaya, Numazu, Gotemba, Tozan-so, Nikko and Atami as well as to Kobe and Hiroshima.

The train ride between Nagoya and Numazu is normally about four hours long but a ty-

Paratroops Reinforce Threatened Laos City

SAM NEUA, Laos (AP) — The army today threw a handful of paratroopers into the shaky defense perimeter around this rebel-threatened city and handed out guns to citizens.

Brig. Gen. Amkha Soukhaving, defending this royal army military headquarters for northern Laos, said Communist units "are probing our lines only 18 miles away."

The general said the main force of Laos rebels, supported by regulars from neighboring Communist North Viet Nam, is grouping in the mountainous jungles 27 miles north of Sam Neua.

Red forces since Sunday have overrun lightly manned outposts. Advance units were reported within 12 to 18 miles of Sam Neua in what shaped up as a major offensive.

He charged that the attackers included at least one battalion of regular North Viet Nam troops, from Laos' Communist-ruled neighbor to the east.

"We intend to hold Sam Neua at all costs," Phoumi declared.

Humphrey Urges Congress Hold Year-Long Sessions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposing a leadership drive for an early adjournment, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said today Congress ought to "grow up" and hold year-long sessions.

Humphrey, as aspirant for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination, said he is against a proposal by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas for unusual Saturday and Labor Day sessions in a drive to get Congress out of town by Sept. 12.

"My view is that Congress ought to grow up to its responsibilities and recognize that the times demand that it stay on the job throughout the year," Humphrey said.

"We could provide opportunities at stated periods for members to go home without missing roll call votes and we could give them an opportunity to live at least a few weeks of family life."

Humphrey said that if Johnson hopes to get Senate action next week on a stripped down civil rights bill, he is entertaining "a vain hope." Humphrey said he will be ready with controversial amendments any time the issue is brought to the floor.

Johnson told the Senate yesterday, after Senate-House conferees agreed on a labor reform bill, that if members buckle down to work they can look forward to an early adjournment.

Indian Ocean Fleet Urged At VFW Meet

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Delegates to the 60th national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars have passed a series of resolutions designed to strengthen this nation's position against the Communist bloc.

The resolutions, approved by voice votes, dealt with such varied issues as the creation of an Indian Ocean fleet and the recognition of the exiled Dalai Lama of Tibet and his followers as the official government of that nation.

Delegates to the convention, now in its fourth day, also approved resolutions calling for the continued separation of the armed forces, construction of 10 atomic-powered aircraft carriers and increased support of anti-submarine warfare activities.

Passage of the Indian Ocean fleet resolution came shortly after Navy Secretary William B. Franke told a press conference yesterday that the Navy would like to have such a fleet, but that he did not feel it was necessary at this time.

John W. Mahan, national commander of the VFW said he believed creation of such a fleet is advisable because of recent events in the Far East.

Mary Baker Eddy founded the Christian Science religion.

Ace Detectives Charged As Dope Ring Members

CHICAGO (UPI)—Three crack detectives were to be arraigned today on charges of protecting and working with a coast-to-coast dope ring.

The detectives were among 21 persons indicted by a federal grand jury in a move hailed by the Justice Department as the death blow to one of the nation's largest heroin and cocaine operations.

Charged with "giving protection to the large ring" were former Chicago Narcotics Bureau Detectives Sheldon R. Teller, 39, Miles J. Cooperman, 30, and Richard E. Austin, 38.

Teller, the son of a Jewish rabbi, and Austin were recently transferred from the narcotics bureau to the continuing investigation of the unsolved Grimes sisters murder. The transfer was regarded as a promotion for the often-commended pair.

Cooperman, a graduate of Mount Olivet College, Olivet, Mich., has been on a sick leave with a kidney ailment.

The three were long considered star members of the narcotics bureau. They had won a total of 26 creditable mentions for their work and Teller and Cooperman were the heroes in the slaying of a Chicago dope peddler during a 1956 gun battle.

Also indicted was Edward Richardson Gayles, a Negro lawyer and from 1950 to 1952 a federal narcotics agent.

All were charged with tipping off the ring to police plans. In addition, the detectives were accused of conspiring with 10 others to sell narcotics, and Teller and Cooperman were charged with selling one-fourth of a kilogram of heroin to convicted narcotics peddler Otis Sears in 1958.

6 Skymasters Are Assigned To Hamilton

Six Skymaster transport planes will be assigned to Hamilton Air Force Base beginning Oct. 1 as a part of a newly organized 4650th Air Transportation Squadron with headquarters at Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base in Missouri.

The transports will become operational Dec. 1 and will carry out airlift assignments for the Air Defense Command, announced Maj. Phillip Coady, base information officer.

Commanded by Maj. Charles C. York, the Hamilton detachment will include 11 officers and 70 airmen, all of whom were previously assigned to the 4754th Radar Evaluation Squadron at Hamilton. The radar squadron is being reassigned to Hill Air Force Base, Utah.

Thief Takes Watchman's Watchdog

Somebody snatched the watchman's watchdog this morning.

Sparky of Strawberry, a Labrador retriever, vanished by an automobile while his owner, who operates a guard and watchman service, stood calling to him.

Roy J. Mandery of 158 Richardson drive, Strawberry, said he was awakened at 4:30 a.m. by Sparky's barking. He saw a car parked in his driveway with the headlights shining in his bedroom window.

When he went out to investigate, both car and dog were gone.

Mandery is the owner of the U. S. Protective Service, a San Francisco firm which specializes in supplying watchmen and guards.

Sparky, his master said, is an excellent watchdog as well as a top performer on pheasants.

"He will get in a car whenever anyone opens the door, however," Mandery added.

Should Public See Exam Results? Radio Panel Splits

Dangers involved in making public the percentage of Marin high school senior who pass the University of California's entrance examination in English were told today by an English teacher at Sir Francis Drake High School and two University of California instructors who have helped devise and grade the test.

Taking the opposite view, that publication of test scores would be beneficial and useful, were Edward F. Dolan Jr., a teacher at Three R Schools of San Rafael, and Joseph Albanese, former member of the San Rafael Board of Education.

The debate was broadcast by radio station KTIM on its "Marin Sounding Board" program. It will be repeated by tape recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Students are already too competitive, he said. Instead of such test scores being a private matter, they would involve the honor of the school if they were made public.

He attacked publishing the University of California's entrance English test scores on the grounds that not all college-bound graduates of a high school take the test.

Belgrade said that in a hypothetical senior English class of 25 students, perhaps five would score high on the college board exam in English and therefore be exempted from taking the Cal test even if they went to Cal; perhaps 10 would go to other universities which have their own entrance exams in English, and perhaps 10 would take Cal's "Subject A" test (the English exam for entering freshmen).

Even if only half of the 10 who took the Subject A test passed, maybe 20 out of the 25 in the class would pass whatever English entrance exams they took, Belgrade said. Releasing Subject A test results would then be misleading, he declared.

"I can see no valid reason for publication when only harm will ensue," Belgrade said.

Dolan, speaking next, took the opposite view. "I would like students coming in to know they will come up against these college entrance exams . . . I think this would be a challenge to bring out the very best in the student . . .

"Publishing the English A results wouldn't be the whole answer but it would be one step in the right direction."

John Halverson, supervisor of Subject A at the university, spoke against making test results public. He said some schools allow only their best students to take the examination. Teachers of high school English, who find out how their students fare, are in a better position to evaluate the scores than is the public, he added.

Halverson said publication of the percentage of those who passed in each high school might result in competition among schools and pressure to change the test.

Albanese, former member of the San Rafael Board of Education, favored publication and favored the resulting competition.

"What are the school administrators hiding? Are the results bad?" he asked.

This same question was telephoned to the radio studio by a listener. It was answered in an oblique manner by Belgrade, who replied that last year Drake High School received a certificate of merit from the University of California for the good showing its graduates made as freshmen.

William Vasse, the fifth radio panelist and instructor of UC freshmen who fail the test, described the Subject A exam as a simple test in writing skill.

Vasse said youngsters from high income homes where the adults are college educated usually acquire the ability to write their ideas clearly with a minimum of teaching. In a less literate community, even a good teaching job may not result in many passing the Subject A test, he said.

He said public release of test scores might indicate poor teaching, but that the net result probably would be damaging.

During the question period, Vasse said that a parent whose child has failed the test may see the test his child wrote. The Committee on Subject A often gets such requests from parents, who write and say "my son or daughter got all A's in high school but failed Subject A."

Dolan was the only panelist among those originally lined up by Moderator Kitty Oppenheimer. Halverson and Vasse appeared in place of a Subject A instructor who was originally scheduled, and Belgrade, in place of Robert P. Torrey, director of instruction of Tamalpais High School District.

Albanese appeared in place of but took the opposite view from that of Supt. Frank L. Lucas, who was to have given the position of the San Rafael schools. In answer to a listener's question, Mrs. Oppenheimer said that Superintendent Lucas originally had agreed to appear but telephoned yesterday that he could not because he had called a staff meeting for this morning.

SCHOOL DAYS DAZE

Comes next week, lots of Marin youngsters will probably be wearing expressions like the one seen here on the face of George Brown as he showed up for the first day of school in Wheeling, W. Va. (AP Wirephoto)

STOCKS TODAY

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK—Investors took to the hills today in the belief that caution was the better part of valor. The result was a sharp setback for stocks on light volume.

The sharp setback, which brought individual losses of four points or more into some of the leaders, stemmed more from neglect than from any concerted selling pressure.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,100,000 shares compared with 2,370,000 yesterday.

Most leading stocks were off from fractions to about a point. A few stocks bucked the downtrend.

Steels, motors, chemicals, oils, metals, rails and electrical equipments declined. Aircrafts, bolstered by a gain of close to a point by Boeing, were mixed.

Ford dropped more than a point despite wide publicity on its new, smaller car, the Falcon. Chrysler and General Motors, were off about a point each. American Motors eased.

U.S. Steel and Youngstown Sheet declined a point or more. Amerada fell about two and Texaco well over a point. Socony Mobil was a point or so lower in the softening oil group.

Ladies Take Spotlight At State Fair

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The ladies took the spotlight again today at the California State Fair. It's Women's Day.

Sharing honors in the second day of the annual event, opened yesterday with the crowning of a queen, are Merced County and the Future Farmers.

The young agricultural workers started early, with a 7:30 a.m. breakfast, then begin their livestock judging contest.

Other events today included the usual horse races and special dance exhibits, fashion shows, a circus and a cooking demonstration.

The 12-day fair will go on daily until Sept. 13. Officials have predicted a record attendance of more than 900,000 visitors to the 105th renewal.

Honest Drunk

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—A county prisoner, serving time for public drunkenness, proved he was honest. While working on a detail in the courthouse he found a wallet and turned it in to the sheriff.

CIVIL LIBERTIES UNIT SCHEDULES BIRTHDAY FETE

Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk is scheduled to speak at the annual potluck dinner given by the Marin Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union on Sept. 25 at the Roger Kent estate in Kentfield.

"State of Civil Liberties in California" will be discussed by the state attorney general as part of a program celebrating the 25th anniversary of ACLU of Northern California and the fifth anniversary of the Marin Chapter. A montage, highlighting memorable events in the history of these groups will also be presented.

Both the meeting and the potluck dinner preceding are open to the public.

House Committee Approves Bill To Up Bond Interest

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Commitee today approved a bill raising interest on E and H savings bonds.

But the committee again refused by a 14-11 vote to grant President Eisenhower's request to repeal the 4¼ per cent interest ceiling on government securities maturing in five years or more.

The savings bonds bill, which goes to the House floor for debate tomorrow, would permit the Treasury to raise interest on the small denomination savings bonds from 3¼ to 3¾ per cent.

Report Of Board's Vote Was Wrong

Supervisor William D. Fusselman backed up his opposition to a Marin County title search of surplus federal lands by voting "no" to a resolution ordering such search, and Supervisor James Marshall was also in opposition, Fusselman said today. The Independent-Journal erred in reporting a unanimous vote for the search, as the vote was 3-2.

The land in question is part of the recently abandoned Tiburon Naval Net Depot, offered to the county for recreational purposes at a price of $41,000.

OBITUARIES

Man Found Dead In Woodacre

Joseph Elmer Decker, 52, was found dead yesterday at his summer residence in Woodacre. Deputy Sheriff George Congdon said the man was dead when he arrived about 10:18 a.m.

A death certificate, certifying heart failure as cause of death, subsequently was signed by Dr. Roberta Fenlon of San Francisco.

Decker, a service station owner in San Francisco, had owned his summer residence on Redwood drive in Woodacre only a few months.

Apparently Decker was working in his yard when he was stricken. He was found by a visiting relative, Clarence A. Talkington of Los Angeles, who called the sheriff's office.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Antonette Decker, a nurse at San Francisco Children's Hospital, a married daughter and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at McAvoy and O'Hara-Evergreen Mortuary, 4545 Geary street, San Francisco. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Russians Check Up

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two of the top Soviet security men have checked arrangements for Nikita Khrushchev's visit here.

James P. Cavanaugh, a U. S. State Department aide, said Maj. Gen. Nikolai S. Zackharov and Vladimir P. Burdin apparently were satisfied Khrushchev would be safe during his Sept. 20-21 visit.

Rose Koslowsky Of Mill Valley Dies

Mrs. Rose Koslowsky, 86, died early today at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wylie at 12 Echo lane, Mill Valley, after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Koslowsky and her husband, Henry R., who survives, had been living there for 16 months. Koslowsky is a retired manufacturer's representative.

A native of Missouri, Mrs. Koslowsky had lived in California for 40 years.

Wilhelmina Hansen Services Are Held

Private funeral services for Mrs. Wilhelmina M. (Minnie) Hansen, 85, a resident of Marin County for 20 years, were held yesterday at the Harry M. Williams mortuary in San Rafael. Burial was at Olivet Memorial Park in Colma.

Mrs. Hansen, whose home had been at 131 Cypress avenue, Kentfield, died Tuesday at a local hospital after a short illness.

She was born in San Francisco in 1874 and was the widow of August Hansen. A daughter and three sons survive: Mrs. Lucile Watrous and Bernard, Emile and George Hansen; also two sisters, Mrs. Emma Groezinger and Mrs. Edna Scheffauer, nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Wins Landscape Job

Bernard Gayman, Sausalito landscape contractor, today was awarded a $30,126.50 contract for landscaping a highway interchange in Pittsburg, Contra Costa county. Gayman's bid was the lowest of five bids received.

Mrs. Jennie Weil Of Sausalito Dies

Mrs. Jennie Weil, 94, of 207 Second street, Sausalito, died early today in a local hospital.

Mrs. Weil, a native of Pennsylvania, where she was born in 1865, is survived by her daughter, Mrs. R. R. Gross, with whom she lived in Sausalito.

The body was taken to Keaton's, San Rafael, where funeral arrangements are pending.

Baron Welch Rites To Be Tomorrow

Funeral services for Baron T. Welch, 69, will be held at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo, at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow. Burial will be private.

Welch, a retired carpenter, died Monday after an illness of several months.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Ina Welch, San Geronimo; three sons and a daughter. He was a native of Texas.

DEATHS

HANSEN—In Kentfield, Sept. 1, 1959, Wilhelmina M. (Minnie) Hansen, beloved wife of the late August Hansen, loving mother of Mrs. Lucile Watrous, Bernhard, Emile and George Hansen, loving sister of Mrs. Emma Groezinger and Mrs. Edna Scheffauer, also survived by nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; a native of San Francisco, aged 85 years.

Private funeral services were held Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1959, at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment Olivet Memorial Park, Colma. (9-3)

WELCH — In San Geronimo, Sept. 1, 1959, Baron T. Welch, devoted husband of Ina B. Welch, beloved father of Mrs. Geneva Sharp of Durango, Colo.; Baron T. Welch of Denver; Kenneth Welch, Farmington, N.M.; Sherman D. Welsh, San Francisco, and Charles McAtee, of San Anselmo; also survived by four grandchildren and four great grandchildren; a native of Texas, aged 69 years; a member of Pile Drivers Union Local No. 34.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral Friday, Sept. 4, at 10:30 a.m. at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. Interment will be private. (9-3)

Mill Valley Moves On Harbor Project

The Mill Valley City Council last night authorized an agreement with Bala and Strandgaard to prepare engineering plans for the city's proposed small craft harbor.

At the same time the council authorized the city attorney and city manager to proceed with condemnation of all land required for the harbor and to make up legal descriptions of the land required.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants told the council he believes the preliminary plans can be paid for out of city sales tax revenues. He said he believes there will be a surplus at the end of the fiscal year.

At a planning commission workshop session at 8 p.m. Sept 15, the council will receive comments and recommendations on the plans.

The same workshop session will discuss a whole plan for Mill Valley. "We are vitally concerned with the orderly development of Mill Valley," a letter from the planning commission said. County Planning Director Mary Summers will be present.

The letter said Mrs. Summers is "the person whose organization is responsible for our planning staff work (and will) discuss the process of evolving a successful plan."

In other matters the council:

1. Revoked a use permit previously granted Herbert Shaprio, automobile agency owner. Shapiro offered to resubmit plans which first had come before the council and the planning commission two years ago. The plans, for an automobile agency building, had been rejected by the planners but approved by the council, and then extended on a temporary basis. The council told him he could resubmit plans to the planning commission. Shapiro hinted he might take legal action.

2. Denied an application for a septic tank to Phillip McDonald for a lot on Molino avenue.

3. Approved a taxicab permit for Verl Hinkle, bringing to four the total number of cabs he may operate in the city.

4. Delayed adoption of a resolution setting up a Lovell avenue assessment district, after several property owners in the proposed district objected because of estimated high costs and proposed elevated sewer lines. F. S. Bitgood of 390 Lovell avenue said the cost for 12 property owners in the proposed district would be about $15,000 as opposed to an original estimate of $3,500.

5. Authorized the purchase for $475 a 10-foot strip along West Blithedale avenue for street widening.

6. Agreed to temporary park repairs at Boyle Park to include a fence, parking and some painting.

7. Approved a five-unit apartment plan for Charles Rester on Corte Madera avenue.

Steel Strikers Get Union Help

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO's Industrial Union Department has donated one million dollars to the striking steel workers, now in the seventh week of their walkout.

Walter Reuther, head of the department and the Auto Workers Union, said the sum represented merely "a down payment" because the steel strike might well last "into the winter."

Reuther said the seven million members of unions comprising the department also will walk on steel picket lines in a further demonstration of over-all union solidarity.

MIAMI STRIPPER HOLDS RENDEZVOUS WITH LONG

The stripper, who performs under the name of Blaze Starr, said Long telephoned her Tuesday night and asked her to come here for a visit.

On her arrival yesterday, she called Long at his hotel and the couple later met at the home of a mutual friend. Miss Starr returned to Miami last night.

Miss Starr told reporters that she met Long about six months ago while appearing at a night club here.

Long, asked about the visit after Miss Starr's departure, told reporters: "It's none of your - - - business."

Khrushchev Takes A Risk In Coming To The U.S.

Visit of Vice Pres. Richard M. Nixon to the Bay Area and his frank discussion of his visit with Soviet Premier Khrushchev was a fitting prelude to Khrushchev's visit here.

There are a number of thoughtful people who seriously question the advisability of allowing the No. 1 Communist to come to this country. They look upon it as offering friendship to the devil or of shaking hands with a mass murderer.

Nixon described Khrushchev as a man who would "weigh consequences," one who "could learn on a visit to the United States," one who "has indescribable delusions" about our country.

"One of the major reasons for our invitation to him is that it will tend to give him a different picture of our country, of our people and of their will to defend themselves and their vital interests," declared the Vice President.

Another thing that Nixon may have been thinking is that Khrushchev is taking a great risk himself in coming here. He already took one big risk in letting Nixon talk to the Russian people. Now he's apparently ready to exchange visits, to let President Eisenhower go to Russia to talk to and with the Russian people.

A dictatorship, such as Russia is today, requires secrecy, fear and suspicion. Khrushchev is beginning to allow that curtain of secrecy to raise slightly. He apparently honestly believes that communism can now stand comparison with democracy, that in open competition, communism would win over the free world.

So Khrushchev is taking a grave risk. He might lose. Through his eyes the drab, stereotyped life in Russia is the best type of life. And at this moment, the great majority of the Russian people, who are probably much better off now than they have been for centuries, may think so too.

But what will happen if they find out differently, when they learn that freedom of choice and action leads to a better life than they had ever imagined? That is the danger that Khrushchev is facing.

Nixon called for this country to go on the offensive in the war of ideas. He urged expansion of exchanges of persons, cultural exchanges, and exchanges of ideas. He said he was convinced that such increased communication between the two nations would have "a leavening action on the Soviet Communistic society."

In the long run, the Vice President indicated, it is in our best interest to bring Khrushchev, Russian dancers, educators, farmers, everyone here, because absolutely nothing compares to exposing the Russian people to a free life.

We take a risk in inviting Khrushchev here and in sending our President over there. Khrushchev takes a risk in coming here and entertaining President Eisenhower over there.

We aren't worried that Eisenhower will embrace communism or that Khrushchev will successfully convert great segments of the American populace. We have hopes that Khrushchev will recognize our determination to remain free and that the President will be able to carry into Russia some ray of truth which, when other rays are added, may eventually become a full brilliance for the Russian people to see.

Letter Contained Half Truths

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Mr. Rodrigues' letter to the I-J printed Aug. 28 contains the usual ration of half truth, innuendo, and falsehood which has characterized the organized effort to defeat the Terra Linda Recreation Bond Issue.

This is a $350,000 bond issue and, by law, cannot exceed that amount by one penny, much less the $700,000 stated in the letter.

In terms of cost, at the most disadvantageous figures quoted by banking counsel, this comes to $22 per family per year plus optional swimming pass at $15 per family per year.

And when it comes to dollars and cents, even if one were never to use the children's parks, the pools, the recreation halls, or the teenager's rooms, it would still be an excellent investment. Ask any realtor whether one's home won't become more valuable and easier to sell, if it includes a share in a recreational facility such as this.

The only possible way to defeat such a carefully planned, researched and documented public facility whose sole purpose is enjoyment by the people, is to throw out a dense smokescreen of confusion and hope that people will be frightened enough to let this opportunity slip through their fingers.

As to the questionnaire which the Recreation Committee distributed to every home as a guide to public sentiment, every one of the 290 which was returned was used to help formulate the final program. Even so, the program must stand or fall on its own merits and not on the results of any preliminary poll.

The program is repeatedly being attacked by concentrating on this sort of triviality; because it cannot be demolished on any question of substance.

The program being offered represents the efforts of 50 people working over a period of one year.

It is so much easier to criticize than to create.

It is certainly understandable for someone whose home will be close to the swimming pool to be apprehensive, as is Mr. Rodrigues. Every effort was made to insure that the parking facilities be adequate. If they are not, then this is the question which should be raised.

Shopping Center Traffic Confused

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Anyone for Russian Roulette?

It's a fine center, but traffic rushes madly in all directions with utter disregard for any directional markings. It makes one a bit skeptical as to whether those who planned the traffic routes shop there, or dare to.

We hope for some improvement in this poorly planned area soon.

Ward Austin Never Shirks Work, But Perhaps He's Doing Too Much

President Ward H. Austin of College of Marin has never been a man to shirk responsibility or evade work.

Curiously, this admirable quality is the source of some agonizing reappraisals of his administration.

With the exception of Trustee George G. Washburn, the junior college trustees appear convinced that President Austin takes upon himself too many petty administrative details leaving him no time for academic policy-making.

The reason that the trustees are concerned about academic policy-making is a recent accreditation report on College of Marin made by a Western College Assn. accreditation committee.

THE COMMITTEE gave College of Marin accreditation for only three years instead of the usual five years.

The accreditation report said that Austin spent too much time on business management and supervision of buildings and grounds.

Since June, when the report was made public, the college has hired a superintendent of maintenance. Before the advent of this superintendent, Austin himself was the one who went around changing a burned out fuse or checking the boiler. Many a group who has used the college buildings has found that the man who came around afterwards and checked that all was well and that all was locked was Austin.

One of the accreditation report suggestions was that a business manager be hired. No decision was made on this (Trustee Washburn said he did not see any need for a business manager) but the trustees made a determined effort to find out exactly what business procedures were now being followed.

Checking of prices and approval of all purchase orders is the responsibility of President Austin, it developed. He makes all bank deposits. The bank is on his way home, he explained.

WHEN TELEPHONE calls come in for him, his standing order is that the call go directly to him and not through his secretary, Mrs. Sondra Fox.

"You should have your secretary screen the calls," protested Rupert E. Kempf, president of the board of trustees.

"I can't think of very many calls I get that could be handled by anyone else," Austin said in defense of his system.

His secretary does not take dictation because Austin prefers not to dictate letters. He writes them out in longhand at home and brings them in to the office the next morning to be typed.

THE JOB OF Mrs. Juanita M. Willis includes processing all G.I. Bill Veterans' applications and monthly reports. After some persistent questioning, the trustees discovered that if Mrs. Willis became ill, the only person to step in and handle the work connected with some 45 veterans would be President Austin.

No one at present is trained to do the other things that Mrs. Willis does: prepare payrolls, prepare warrants for signature, collect and count adult school fees and keep minutes of the board of trustees.

LATER IN THE evening it was suggested that a new switchboard operator be hired and that the present switchboard operator, who acts as receptionist and person who checks bills, should be trained to help Mrs. Willis.

Austin said: "If that's the way you feel about it, we can hire a new PBX operator at the next board meeting."

What the trustees wanted, however, was not capitulation, but a definite recommendation for their next board meeting, which is scheduled for Sept. 10.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

HIGH PRICE OF STEALING

A widow who embezzled $54,000 from a San Francisco department store admitted to police: "I got ulcers worrying about it."

The 48-year-old woman claimed that she had taken money from the store each day for four years to help support her four children and pay for medical expense.

In her statement to police, the distraught woman revealed that she had stolen $60 each day for an entire year and from $30 to $40 daily during the three previous years.

Those who indulge in stealing, hatred, immorality or who habitually violate the divine commandments in any way, gain little and lose much.

They invariably sacrifice the peace of mind, heart and soul for which everyone yearns.

God has instilled in our very nature an inclination to what is good, true and beautiful. A distortion inevitably takes place when we try to substitute what is evil, false or tawdry.

"In the joy of the just, there is great glory." (Proverbs 28:12)

Grant, O Holy Spirt, that we may so live as to merit that precious peace.

Designer Of Lavish Resort Hotels Defends His Use Of Ornaments

NEW YORK (AP) — Architect Morris Lapidus today is America's leading designer of resort hotels.

Some years ago architect Frank Lloyd Wright was shown a lavish 15-million-dollar hotel in Miami Beach.

Asked what he thought of it, he snapped: "It's an anthill!"

To which Lapidus, designer of the hotel, replied: "I'm flattered. An anthill is one of the greatest abodes nature ever perfected."

Lapidus, who has designed everything from stores to skyscrapers, is best known for some 75 million dollars worth of ornate tourist hotels that stud Florida and the Caribbean.

His hostelries often have a stunning impact on the public, sometimes an annoying one on fellow architects.

"Some members of my profession say, 'You're too corny —you're pandering to the public,'" he said. "Yes, I am My critic is the masses. I design for them.

Let's stop trying to educate the human race. Let's just make them happy."

The big quarrel between Lapidus and his critics is over adornment. He thinks much of modern architecture is becoming too bare and stern.

"The love of adornment fills a basic need in people, a need as basic as food or sex. Much architecture today ignores this human desire" he says.

"I'm not a Hollywood character who merely tries to shock people. I don't do things just to be sensational.

"But hotels and restaurants are not like factories or schools. They are places where people go to get a lift —to get out of their humdrum life.

"WHAT I TRY to do is to create buildings which give people a sense of exhilaration and enjoyment. Some architects feel we have reached a point where we are sophisticated enough to admit pure structure and pure form.

"That may be true of a minority. But the majority still get an emotion bang out of adornment. Rich colors beautiful materials and handsome decorations satisfy their emotional need for adornment,"

IN A WAY, he designs his hotels as if they were vast stage sets. His creed: "Even a doghouse, or a birdhouse, should have adornment."

So Lawmakers Give Out With Wise Talk

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP) — With adjournment yearnings bearing heavily on the nation's lawmakers, congressional utterances these days sometimes take an odd twist.

For example:

"I'd vote for a bottle of catsup if it had a labor reform label on it"—cloakroom comment reported by Rep. Al Ullman (D-Ore).

"A banker went to his doctor for a physical checkup. After thorough tests the doctor's verdict came: 'You're as sound as a dollar.'

"'Holy smoke, as bad as that?' exclaimed the banker, and fainted dead away." — Rep. Joe Kilgore (D-Tex.) on inflation.

"We mustn't embarrass our thieving allies."—Headline on remarks placed in the Congressional Record by Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich).

"I came here this morning all pepped up with a great big speech and have been sitting around all day hoping to make it. Now I have the floor, and just before I came down here I counted the members on the floor and there were 43 of them, and the majority of them were for my bill. So I don't think I'm going to be able to convince anybody."—Rep. Howard Smith (D-Va.) during House debate.

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, to a former House member elected to the Senate: "How do you like it, now that you've been demoted to the Senate? Why, those fellows don't have any rules over there."

Oh, well, it has been pretty hot here.

Soviet Determined To Rule World And We Should Never Forget It

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every once in a while, as if Communists were punching a time clock, this country gets a jolt, a reminder that communism is a revolutionary movement which intends taking over the world.

The United States is getting two jolts now: Communist guerrillas are attacking little, almost defenseless Laos. Red Chinese have shot their way across the Indian frontier, after savagely devouring Tibet.

Last year the Red Chinese banged away at Formosa. They had tried to help the North Korean Reds take South Korea. They succeeded in helping the Communists of Indochina take over half that country.

IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE to this writer, judging from the nature of communism and the performance of Red China, that it will ever cease trying to take over every country of Asia, the soft touches first, the bigger ones later.

Red China has moved so far mostly by direct, or indirect, military aggression. But it doesn't have to shoot its way in every time. It can use infiltration, internal subversion, economic pressure, threats.

The Soviet Union has been more exposed than Red China to immediate atomic attack if it got too brazen. So it has been less crude, less daring.

After the Soviet Union seized Czechoslovakia in 1948 through internal subversion and frightened the West into forming its North Atlantic Treaty Alliance, it has tried to move by pressure, infiltration, threats and economic penetration.

Because communism up to now has nipped at its neighbors a bite at a time and then sat back, waiting for the noise to dwindle, it is easy for the Western world, so long as it lives on hope, to think things may settle down.

They never have and it is questionable they will—for a long time.

THE WESTERN world considered Hitler a windbag when he openly revealed his dreams of conquest. But lessons are forgotten.

The West does not seem unduly excited by Premier Nikita Khrushchev's warning that communism will bury the non-communist world, even though he suggests the funeral services will be conducted by economics.

Time is the greatest narcotic communism has for trying to stupefy the West into hope and even relaxation. Communism, convinced it will win the world, is willing to take its time at the gambling table. Khrushchev has said so.

The whole western world will hope, but keep its fingers crossed, when President Eisenhower and Khrushchev sit down together in mid-September to talk peace. Maybe they will even reach some peaceful understandings. It is doubtful whatever they achieve will be more than a temporary peace.

BY THE SAME token, of course, the West with its economic help is doing much, if not its utmost, to keep the rest of the world non-Communist.

Talks with Khrushchev will hardly change that. So the most it seems reasonable to expect is a truce.

Out of all this perhaps the only comfort the West can find is that Khrushchev may be deeply worried about the growing strength and ambitions of his ally, Red China. There was a time, before the communists took over China and showed their own strong will, that the Soviet Union may have hoped to rule the world. Not now. In the end, Red China may become the Soviet Union's greatest enemy.

THE WORLD hasn't reached the stage yet where the spirit of communism in any country is greater than the spirit of nationalism. Until it does, there can be no peace even for Communists in a Communist world.

One reminder of the reality of communism—of the long struggle ahead — came last weekend from the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee, which released a report from one of the private research groups it has hired to study the various aspects and problems of American foreign policy.

This group warned: "The fundamental fact which dominates our foreign policy problems is the determined, relentless intention of the Soviet Union to control the world. It is important the United States realize this is not an idle threat."

TRY AND STOP ME

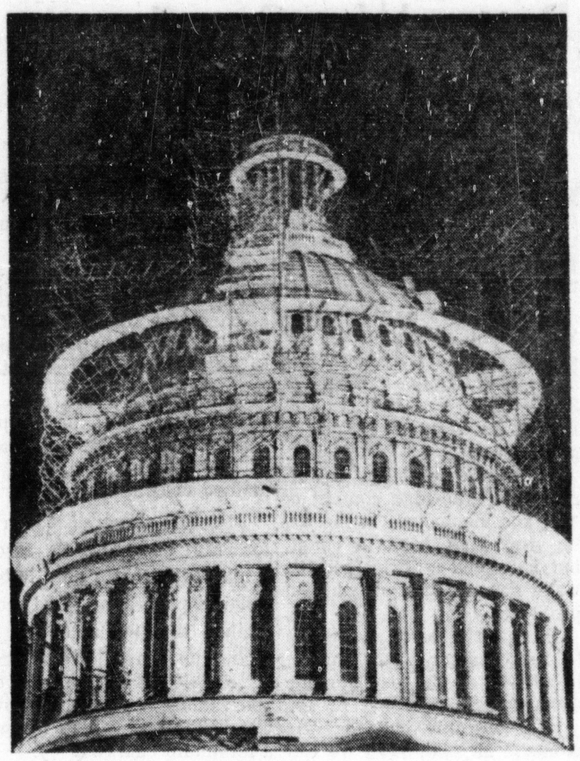
BENNETT CERF

Old Doc Schnitzel, in the hillbilly country, was called upon to treat the very young bride of a worried moonshiner. He assured the husband, "That little wife of yours is going to be all right. She's just teething."

Another time, Doc Schnitzel gingerly raised his scalpel to perform an appendectomy on what looked like a long black cord on the table. A nurse whispered admiringly, "There goes old Doc Schnitzel again—operating on a shoe string."

Pretty young thing at a neighborhood movie got so annoyed with the attentions of the gent in the next seat she changed cars four times.

Boy stopped father cold with this query: "What do skin divers do with the rest of their body while their skin is diving?"



CAPITOL DOME GETS CHECKUP

This night view shows the dome of the U.S. Capitol in Washington, currently getting a $736,000 inspection and renovation. The Capitol architect's office reports the 285-foot dome and the 19-foot Statue of Freedom which tops it have withstood the elements remarkably well. The statue was hoisted into place in December, 1863, and the dome was completed in 1864. A fresh coat of oyster paint will cover the dome and then the web of scaffolding will come down. Larkspur City Council Approves Final Budget

The Larkspur City Council last night adopted a final 1959-60 city budget of $278,286, an increase of $3,000 over the preliminary budget and $46,229 over last year.

Councilmen last month set the city's 1959-60 tax rate at $1.63 per $100 assessed valuation, same as last year.

The additional $3,000 budgeted last night will go toward construction of a 750-foot access road from Magnolia avenue to Larkspur's new elementary school. City Manager Ronald E. Piper had estimated the project at $24,000 for preliminary budget purposes. Actual cost, he said, will be about $27,000.

Piper said the $3,000 change will have no effect on the tax rate because the city's final assessed valuation figure will yield at least that much more in tax revenue. Larkspur's equalized assessed value is $8,519,875, Piper said. His original estimate was $7,773,347.

The Larkspur council also:

1. Granted Richard S. Epidendio a zoning variance for a portable concrete batching plant at 2092 Redwood highway south. Approval was recommended Tuesday by the city planning commission.

2. Introduced a zoning ordinance amendment which would rezone the Robert L. Coleman estate property on Magnolia avenue from commercial to one-family residential. The four and one-half acre parcel was zoned for commercial use two years ago, but never developed.

3. Asked the planning commission to reconsider the request of Paul Von Eichman of Boardwalk No. 1 for setback variances to make legal an existing fenced-in deck for his ark. The commission had split 2-2 on the matter, with one member absent. Specifically, the council wants Robert W. Elliott, the commission's legal adviser, to rule on whether a setback requirement can apply to a boardwalk easement.

4. Received a letter declaring that George Niven will hold the city responsible for any flood damage to his Niven Orchid Co. property which might result from "inadequacy" of a new 24-inch drainage culvert under the access road to the new school. A copy of the letter, written by attorney Albert E. Bagshaw, will be sent to City Atty. Samuel W. Gardiner, absent last night.

5. Approved warrants totaling $29,706.37.

6. Filed a report from Fred A. Banducci that a $175.41 deficit was incurred for this year's Larkspur-Corte Madera July 4 fireworks display, first loss in the history of the annual event. Banducci, general chairman, said the fireworks fund still has a balance of $192.16.

Marinite Wins Award From Army Engineers

Carma R. Holland, 512 Las Colindas drive, Terra Linda, today was awarded a certificate and $200 by the Army Engineers for "supervisory effectiveness."

Miss Holland is a personnel assistant for the San Francisco district. She was presented the award by Col. John S. Hartnett who termed it "a tribute to the effectiveness of the advice, training and counsel given by Miss Holland to the supervisory personnel of the organization."

Plane Crashes In Alaska Storm, 8 Die

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)— Lost in a storm and running low on fuel. That was the last terse report from the pilot of a chartered plane that crashed in central Alaska Tuesday night carrying eight persons, including six girls, to their deaths.

The girls, all in their early 20s or late feens, had been selling magazine subscriptions and were homeward bound when the twin-engine C45 plunged to the ground near McGrath, 300 miles southwest of here.

Killed were C. W. (Bud) Priest, Anchorage, the pilot; C. A. Bailey, 35, Seattle, who had charge of the tour; Rosalee Johnson, Conrad, Mont.; Diane Nelson, Fargo, N. D.; Shirley Salazar, Hawaii; Cathy Clark, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Albert McKellop, Tulsa, Okla.; and Virginia Lee Ostrander, 18, Seattle.

Bailey, formerly of Lynchburg, Va., worked on contract for the Local Reader Service of Chicago. His wife and three children now live in Seattle, where a regional office was established.

NEW WORKS BILL

Supporters Of Veto To Face Punishment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Comittee refused today to approve a new public works bill stripped of projects which caused President Eisenhower to veto an earlier measure.

Instead it voted 23-19 to give a subcommittee the job of drafting an entirely new measure to replace the vetoed bill.

Behind this maneuver is a desire by some Democrats to punish members who voted to uphold the President's veto of the original $1,216,000,000 bill. They could do this by denying or reducing funds for river and harbor and flood control projects in districts represented by members who upheld the veto.

An effort to override the president's veto failed by one vote.

Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) chairman of the full committee and the subcommittee, said it might take two hours, two days or two weeks to draft a new bill.

"We want to take a close look at some of these projects," a top Democrat said. "Many of them are in districts represented by members who voted to uphold the veto for economy reasons. We may decide to give them some real economy right in their own back yards."

The vetoed bill contained 67 projects to which the President objected.

Marinite Resigns From Matson Line

Alfred B. Tichenor of 129 Bretano way, Greenbrae, has resigned as director of industrial relations for Matson Navigation Co., it was announced yesterday.

A former director of the Pacific Maritime Assn., Tichenor is a member of the board of trustees of Golden Gate College, San Francisco, and the San Francisco Employers' Council board of governors.

ONLY DAILY NEWSPAPERS SELL SOFT DRINKS

FROM BOTTLER TO BUYER

THIS YEAR more than 35,000,000,000 bottles of soft drinks will be sold in the U.S. and Canada. The average consumption will reach 183 bottles per person. The amount spent for this sea of soft drinks will be well over $1,500,000,000!

Daily newspapers play a sparkling role in the steady growth of this billion dollar business. National soft drink companies find the daily newspaper's qualities uniquely helpful in solving their many marketing problems. And the daily newspaper's flexibility helps them adjust their advertising to regional and seasonal sales differences.

Local, regional and franchise bottlers, and retailers of soft drinks depend on the daily newspaper to reach the greatest number of consumers in their market. Last year local advertisers, including retailers of soft drinks, spent $2⅓ billion in newspapers—six times more than in radio; nine times more than in TV. Every day people buy 58,000,000 copies.

If you want to quench your thirst for sales, use the Total Selling daily newspaper. It sells products nationally and locally—all the way to the consumer.

Half of the curriculum at the Air Force Academy consists of courses in the social sciences and humanities. The rest is made up of applied and theoretical sciences such as aeronautics, astronautics, nuclear physics and electronics.

QUARRY SAFER THAN HUNTERS, POLICE FEAR

PALM SPRINGS (UPI) — Police were called out yesterday after a posse of teenagers armed with rifles took off after a mountain lion reported loose in the area.

The police said they didn't care about the lion but were going along to see that the teen-agers didn't harm each other with their guns.

Missile Test Base Strike Is Settled

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Resumption of work today was announced by the Operating Engineers Union after settlement of a strike that halted all construction at the missile test center.

The strike for higher wages began Monday. Missile launchings were not affected.

Better Way Sought By Muir Beach Board

Directors of the Muir Beach Community Services District last night decided to tell water users what will be done to improve either the source of water or its content.

Secretary-Manager John White said a committee will give a report to the directors at its next regular meeting at 8 p.m., Oct. 7, at the home of President Charles A. Borden in Muir Beach.

White said the board is worried about the high content of iron and manganese in the water and high bacteria count, but he added quickly that the water does not present a health problem.

He said the board also wants to find another water source, in addition to the district's one well, if possible.

"But we only have a little money," he said, "and we can only do so much. We will either find a way to better purify the water or find an additional source."

Whatever is to be done will be decided by the committee, approved at the next meeting and the decision will be mailed in letters to each resident in the district, he said.

White said that for the past two months the level of water in the district well has remained constant.

Directors lowered the rate for the Muir Beach resort. White said that Capt. Robert Bolger, proprietor, had complained that the rate was too high. The board lowered from $2 to $1.50 the charge for every 100 gallons of water used over 500 gallons for which there is a minimum charge of $5.

Four Hurt As Car Runs Off Marin Road

Four Vallejo women were injured last night when their car brakes failed and the car ran off Indian road in Los Ranchitos north of San Rafael, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The car landed with its front end in a dry creek bed 10 feet below the roadway and its rear end against a power pole. A water main was broken in the accident.

Minia Isaac, 50, driver, said the brakes failed halfway down Indian road. She pumped the foot brake with no results. She then tried the emergency brake but it failed to hold also.

Most seriously injured in the 8 p.m. accident were Cleo Polk, 55, who suffered a broken right leg, and Carrie Lexing, 51, who received a nose injury and spinal contusions and sprains. They were transferred to Vallejo General Hospital after emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital.

The driver, who suffered cuts and bruises, and Ruth Hammond, 41, who received cuts and bruises and a sprained right wrist, were treated at San Rafael General Hospital.

General Parker leaves after 30 years in the service. Before taking command of WADF he was deputy chief of staff for operations at ADC headquarters for two years. He is a command pilot holding the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Distinguished Service Star of the Philippine Republic.

San Rafael Firm Wins Ross Valley Sewer Job

A sewer replacement project in Wood lane, Fairfax, was awarded to the engineering contracting firm of Mario Bottini in San Rafael at a meeting last night in San Anselmo of the Ross Valley Sanitary District board. Cost will be around $3,000.

The district includes Fairfax, San Anselmo, Ross, Kentfield and Greenbrae.

PARK MONKEYS SURPLUS; CARE TO BUY ONE?

BAKERSFIELD (UPI)—Kern County supervisors are hopeful of a quick sale of four surplus Hart Memorial Park monkeys.

The two Rhesus and two Java monkeys became unhappy with the park, tore up everything in their cages and bit their keepers. The keepers asked supervisors for relief.

Since the quarrelsome animals are county property, supervisors were forced to declare them surplus and place them on sale. Prospective buyers are being told that only a change of scenery is needed to make the monkeys happy.

WILLIS

doctor has been diligently appearing in court, and treating his patients on Mondays and Saturdays and sometimes in the evenings, said Gillen. About 15 expectant mothers are under Dr. Willis' care, Gillen told the court.

CAN REMAIN FREE

Judge Keating ruled that the case involves an unusual set of circumstances not found in the case of the usual felon. He permitted both the doctor and his wife to remain free on bail.

Pending a motion for a new trial and other appeals, Dr. Willis' status with the Marin County Medical Society and in the hospitals apparently remains unchanged.

Dr. Rolla B. Hess, president of the Marin County Medical Society, said the society has made no move with regard to Dr. Willis. Dr. Willis is still a member of the society, with no restrictions placed against him as far as the society is concerned. As long as there is still a chance for appeal in the Willis case, Dr. Hess said, he does not feel the medical society will take any action.

STAFF PRIVILEGES

Dr. Willis also has staff privileges, with certain restrictions, at the three hospitals in Marin County.

Defense attorney Gillen said he would seek a new trial on several grounds, including "prejudicial misconduct on the part of the district attorney." As a specific instance of "misconduct," Gillen pointed to a question asked by the district attorney of S. Ames Pence, administrator of Marin General Hospital, during the trial.

Weissich asked Pence if they had been in communication with each other on the Willis case for about four years. Pence said they had.

Gillen immediately asked for a mistrial. The judge denied a mistrial but ordered the question and answer stricken and asked the jury to disregard it.

Weissich produced a parade of witnesses, who testified they had been aborted by Dr. Willis during the past year for fees ranging from $350 to $500.

been increasing with each dance . . .

"It is my recommendation these dances be stopped immediately."

McGowan said "Negroes and whites" were at the dance, and "a controversy started that led to a fight."

He said police headquarters in the city hall received a call at 10:10 p.m. that there was "trouble" at the dance.

Two police officers, Keith Cramer and Phillip Planert, were on duty at the dance. City Manager A. E. Almcrants said both policemen were off regular duty, but were hired by Kustom Keys to keep watch.

It required several officers to handcuff Joseph Grippi, 19, of 37 Park road, Fairfax, police said. They booked him at the county jail on charges of disturbing the peace and resisting arrest.

Police said Grippi was one of three persons who were scuffling, but that by the time Grippi was subdued, the others had melted into the crowd.

The police report did not mention any other arrests.

Piecing together two reports on the incidents, this is what appeared to have happened:

During the time Grippi was being handcuffed, another Fairfax youth asked police to take him to their office in "protective custody." He told police he didn't want any trouble. Several Negroes crowded around him as he attempted to get into the police car, and one hit him. Finally, he managed to get in after swinging the door against one of them, causing that person's mouth to bleed.

Police took the Fairfax youth to the station, where there soon appeared A/2c Robert Basten, 29, who said he, too, was mobbed on the grounds outside the hall in his attempt to get away with the Fairfax youth's car. Also, several Negro youths appeared to demand that the youth apologize for the injury to one of their number.

The boy refused, and an argument started. The policemen on duty grabbed a riot club and cleared the office of all except the boy from Fairfax.

He told police that earlier at the dance he had "tagged" a white girl who was dancing with a Negro, and that the Negro had "invited me outside where he would teach me not to tag."

Apparently it was this scuffle that involved Grippi.

Also at the dance, Garrie Thompson of Albany complained that while he and his niece —whom he was chaperoning— were watching entertainment on the stage, someone dropped a lighted cigarette in his shirt pocket.

The city council said there would be no more dances, and that the Parks and Recreation Commission would review the incident Saturday, hold up Searles' permit, and see if some other dance-recreation program can be worked out.

After McGowan's letter was read, Councilman Peter Behr said: "We're borrowing trouble and not promoting pleasure. Our police force can't handle a crowd that size."

Councilman Elizabeth Rodman said the police told her "the trouble was started by kids from out of town." She asked that a study be made on the possibility of limiting participating teen-agers to Mill Valley youngsters, and whether some way could be found to keep down the size of dances.

City Manager Almcrants expressed dismay that teen-age dances might be eliminated altogether. He said he had spoken to many youngsters and they wanted to know why they have to be penalized when the trouble is always started by a minority.

Mayor Robert D. Huber said he thought the situation was "terrible," and agreed the dances should be stopped for the time being.

POWER OUT IN GREENBRAE, TWIN CITIES

Power was out for 21 minutes between 12:49 and 1.10 in areas in Greenbrae, Corte Madera and Larkspur, but the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. could not immmediately say why.

Power is off automatically when something goes wrong or an accident damages equipment. Spokesmen for PG&E said power was restored without further trouble when the automatic switch was opened.

Kentfield Girl Injured As Car, Bus Collide

A 2-year-old Kentfield girl, Lisa Rize, was treated at Marin General Hospital yesterday afternoon for a cut chin suffered when a car driven by her mother, Mrs. Sylvia Simpson Rize, 29, of 55 Lancaster street struck the rear of a Volkswagen bus at McAllister street and Sir Francis Drake boulevard, Kentfield, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Boys Nabbed After Looting Wishing Well

Two 15-year-old boys, who fished 89 cents in coins from a wishing well at a San Rafael restaurant and fled on their bicycles were chased down by a fast-stepping San Rafael policeman early today.

The youths, one from San Rafael and the other visiting from Santa Clara, admitted taking the coins from LaPetite Auberge restaurant at Fourth street and Tamalpais avenue, police said. They were released to their parents and ordered to contact the San Rafael juvenile officer.

Officers Leo Schwab and Larry Price noticed the two boys in the rear patio of the restaurant about 12:30 a.m. As the boys fled on their bicycles, Schwab caught one on Fifth aveuue near the railroad tracks, and Officer Ray Bleasdale grabbed the other at Fifth and Lincoln avenues. The boys had 59 pennies, two dimes and two nickels.

phoon interrupted the train's electric current and the trip stretched out to 14 hours.

The boys decided that all the Japanese cities looked "Westernized."

In Tokyo the traffic is "fantastic," according to Ned.

"We never expected to see so many cars, motorcycles and bicycles," he said. "It is really amazing. One thing you have to do in Tokyo is go for a taxi ride. The first ride scares you to death. The drivers drive like maniacs. After a while you get used to it, though, but there are always those close calls which make you jump."

The whole tour, including going via the President Wilson and returning to Alaska by airplane, cost just over $1,000 per boy. As souvenirs, the three boys bought Japanese cameras and binoculars.

Inventor Reports Loss Of Fog Spray Machine

Charles R. Fischer, Corte Madera inventor, reported to police yesterday that an insecticide fog spray machine had been stolen from the carport of his home at 39 Edison avenue.

17 ARGENTINE GENERALS FACE ARREST

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Secretary of War Elbio Anaya today ordered the arrest of 17 generals in a speedy counterattack against a large-scale rebellion within Argentina's army.

Garrisons throughout the country pledged allegience to Gen. Carlos Toranzo Montero, who was fired by Anaya yesterday.

Convict Guilty In Knife Case

San Quentin convict Ivory Guidry, 26-year-old auto thief from Los Angeles, was found guilty yesterday of illegal knife possession inside the prison last May 20.

A jury of six men and six women heard the case for two days before Marin Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori and brought in a guilty verdict yesterday noon, after 20 minutes deliberation. Deputy Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales was prosecutor.

Guidry took the stand and declared he needed the sharply honed table knife for protection.

Guidry will be sentenced at 1:30 p.m. on Sept. 10. Maximum penalty is five years to life. The convict is already serving a term of six months to five years.

Bomb Threat Proves Hoax

A San Francisco parole officer living in Marinwood received a bomb threat yesterday afternoon, in what investigators believed was a juvenile prank.

Mrs. Ruth R. Marks of 206 Deepstone drive, Marinwood, told sheriff's deputies she got a telephone call about 2 p.m. The voice, which sounded like that of a juvenile, said: "There is a bomb under the chair facing the television. It is set to go off in four minutes, and we are not kidding."

Sheriff's deputies searched the home just to make sure, but found no evidence of explosives. Mrs. Marks' husband, Irving, is a San Francisco parole officer and former San Francisco police officer.

south, four cars began following them at high speed, cornering them at the Black Point signal. The pursuers jumped off and swarmed over the airmen's car, tearing off the aerial and smashing windows. Boehler grabbed a crescent wrench for protection, but as soon as he stepped out, somebody smashed a bottle over his head, he related. Then came a big board, which knocked him out.

Then the gang roared back into Sonoma County, where police arrested nine from a description of their cars. The nine admitted following the airmen but denied the attack. They said Boehler waved a knife at them as he drove out of Sonoma.

Kogler Re-Elected Recreation Head

Albert E. Kogler, Corte Madera town councilman, last night was re-elected chairman of the Larkspur-Corte-Madera Joint Recreation Commission for 1959-60.

Mrs. Charles M. Secor of Larkspur was named vice chairman and secretary. At their Sept. 22 meeting, commissioner will appoint an at-large member of the Twin Cities agency.

The commission approved a fall recreation program last night and authorized printing of an activities schedule. The program will start Sept. 14.

D.A. Scoffs At Hammer Death Story

MADERA (AP) — The district attorney says Mike Lee's contention that his granddaughter must have killed her mother with a hammer is ridiculous.

Dist. Atty. Lester Gendron said a five-hour lie detector test "showed discrepancies" yesterday in Lee's story about the death of his pretty daughter, Mrs. Mary Lee Michaels, 17.

Gendron said Lee, 42, admitted being in the room with his daughter and her eleven-month-old daughter but contended that the infant must have committed the assault.

Mrs. Michaels died in Dearborn Hospital here of two hammer blows on the head and the autopsy surgeon, Dr. Zdenek Fluss, said no infant could have wielded a hammer with such force.

S.F. Tax Rate Hiked 54 Cents

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco's tax rate has leaped to a record $8.09 per $100 of assessed valuation, up 54 cents over the current rate.

The new tax base was announced by Controller Harry D. Ross, who said general municipal purposes accounted for $6,016, up 33.3 cents over the present charge.

CLAIM DISPUTED

Is 'Civil War Vet' Not Really One?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Scripps-Howard staff writer reported today that a search of government records cast doubt on the claim of ailing Walter G. Williams of Houston, Texas, that he is the nation's last surviving Civil War veteran.

Lowell K. Bridwell said that his research shows that Williams "is a Confederate veteran only in his memory-clouded mind."

Records of the national archives and the census were examined by Bridwell as the basis for his story. He said that records of the Confederacy kept by the archives fail to back up Williams' claim that he served in the famed Texas brigade of Gen. John B. Hood.

Furthermore, according to the reporter, Williams is 103 years old instead of 116 as he claims. This would have made him 8 years old at the time Williams said he was serving with Hood, the story said.

Williams applied for a Texas Confederate pension on Aug. 5, 1932, and in an affidavit said he was a member of Company C, 5th Regiment, of Hood's brigade 11 months before the war ended.

Bridwell noted that Hood's brigade had been broken up long before Williams "believes he enlisted."

Williams is now in extremely feeble condition at his Houston home where he is being cared for by a daughter. Last month, Congress passed and President Eisenhower signed a bill which would declare the day of the Texan's death a day of national mourning with flags to be flown at half mast.

In 1958, a special federal pension was approved for Williams and Confederate veteran John Sallings of Slant, Va., who died last March 16. According to Bridwell, Sallings was apparently the last survivor of the war between the states.

The "Republic of California" ended with the raising of the American flag at Sonoma, July 9, 1846.

FAST DRAW TO MEAN FAST SUSPENSION

ROSEVILLE (AP) — Sheriff William Scott today promised a fast seven-day suspension without pay for deputies caught practicing fast draws.

"We like to have them alive and a little slower," he said.

"We have been too busy hauling fast draw artists to the hospital to be much impressed by their performance. One of them managed to shoot himself twice in one month."

Pt. Reyes School Ready For Pupils —All 8 Of Them

The Pt. Reyes School District board last night declared everything in readiness for the eight pupils who are scheduled to return to the one-room, eight-grade school on Sept. 10.

According to J. H. Mendoza, clerk of the board, there will be no seventh and eighth graders in attendance this year, the oldest registered pupil being 11 years old.

Mrs. Ada Nielsen teaches all grades.

The Point Reyes school district tax rate, set by the Marin County Board of Supervisors Tuesday, is 66 cents per $100 assessed valuation, an eight-cent drop from the 1958-59 rate. The unincorporated area enjoys a $4.15 total tax rate, the lowest in the county.

New Violence Breaks Out In Calcutta

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Violence spread through Calcutta today for the fourth straight day, and normal life in India's largest city was at a standstill.

A police official said the trouble was spreading and getting worse.

Gangs battled police in Howrah, a jute-processing suburb across the Hooghly River. The police opened fire, killing two of the rioters.

The situation in Howrah was considered to be getting out of control. Officials said no end to the trouble is in sight.

The violence developed from Communist-inspired demonstrations against the high price of rice. The Communists called a general strike today to protest rice prices and police gunfire Tuesday night which fatally wounded 10 rioters.

Some officials accused the Communists of using the easily inflamed mobs from the port city's teeming slums in an effort to bring down the government of west Bengal State. Calcutta is the state capital.

EXPERT EXPLAINS:

Consumer Not Dumb, Merely Uninformed

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The average consumer isn't stupid. But he's often woefully uninformed.

So says Dr. Persia Campbell. And she speaks as an expert witness.

The grey-haired economics professor served as the first state consumer counsel in New York under former Gov. Averell Harriman.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown invited her here to help select California's new consumer counsel, authorized by the 1959 Legislature.

There are 45 candidates for the $15,000-a-year job. Brown has indicated he favors a woman for the post. A few men, however, have made a bid for it.

What can a consumer counsel do for the buying public?

As New York's shoppers watchdog, Dr. Campbell put on educational campaigns aimed at retail or home repair rackets. She set up a statewide consumers advisory committee, as well as regional groups.

Her agency sponsored legislation to regulate installment buying, prohibit so-called bait advertising and bogus labeling. It represented the public in telephone and railroad rate hearings.

Dr. Campbell, who now teaches at Queens College, New York, originated a series of fact sheets which were given wide public distribution.

The fact sheets covered such subjects as:

How to buy fresh fruits and vegetables in season. Watch for "overfacing" — where all the big strawberries, for instance, are on the top.

How to buy on the installment plan. Make sure there are no empty spaces on your contract along with the spiel, "Don't worry, madam, we'll fill it in."

"Three hundred billion dollars was spent over the counter last year," Dr. Campbell noted.

"The average buyer works hard for his money. He's entitled to a fair deal in what he gets for his dollar in terms of quality, price and terms of sale."

She said responsible businessmen not only supported creation of the consumer counsel office but worked actively with her staff.

Larkspur Council Requests Report On Larger Municipal Boat Harbor

The Larkspur City Council last night authorized City Manager Ronald E. Piper to prepare cost estimates and a financial feasibility report for a municipal yacht harbor with many more boat berths than the 100 originally proposed.

Piper submitted two revised pencil sketches of a harbor facility planned for Arroyo Holon Canal, between Magnolia avenue and Corte Madera Creek.

One plan would provide 156 small boat berths and leave room for addition of another 84. The other would start with 126 berths and allow for the addition of 104.

Cost studies will be the determining factor in the choice of revised plans, Piper said.

The city hopes to obtain a $300,000 loan for the project from the state Small Craft Harbors Commission. Deadline for filing application is Nov. 16.

Councilman Orrin W. Gray predicted a municipal harbor with some 200 berths would be "filled up 100 per cent within two months" after completion.

Envisioned by city officials is a 43-acre recreation development with a park-playground as well as a boat harbor. The harbor facilities would occupy about one-third of the area. The city owns the land.

Piper said the revised tentative plans also provide 10 transient berthing spaces and allow for expansion to 18.

A much larger area for commercial development has been provided, the manager added. He said this would accommodate such facilities as boat sales and repair shops. Plans also call for a fueling dock and service float.

Two boat launching ramps are envisioned by Piper, as well as a clubhouse and, possibly, a restaurant and bar. He said the plans provide two auto parking spaces per permanent boat berth.

To allow for additional berthing spaces, Piper reduced the size of the boat trailer parking area envisioned by the original harbor plan.

Piper proposed that dry fill be used for the yacht harbor portion of the recreation development and dredged material for the park area.

Revenue from the yacht harbor would come from berthing fees and commercial leases.

"I think the whole proposal is excellent," said Councilman Gray, who doubles as chairman of the Larkspur City Recreation Commission.

California Parents Set To Play Larger Role In School Programs

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Several thousand California parents will play a more active role during the new school year in charting out the high school programs of their youngsters.

In 26 large school districts, parents will be called in to meet counselors "at the earliest possible time when they can be sure the youngster is making the right career decision."

The new counseling program —designed for all seventh, eighth and ninth graders in the districts, instead of just the "problem cases"—was outlined today by Associate Superintendent of Public Instruction Jay D. Conner.

Conner said counselors would spread out youngsters' school records, achievement and aptitude test scores before the parents, partly with the hope parents would not "force kids to become engineers or doctors who have more aptitude, say, to be musicians."

The guidance conferences have the larger goal, he said, of binding parents more closely into the education of their sons and daughters.

"There's a mistaken idea that education is an industry," Conner said, "where you pour in raw materials and they come out standard nuts and bolts."

Conner said the expensive, time-consuming guidance program was being tested on a large scale with the aid of a $1,100,000 federal grant under the National Defense Education Act.

In 108 other high school districts, he said, though no parent conferences were planned, funds would be used to beef up the ratio of counselors to students so the counselors would not be merely "glorified clerks."

The education official argued that major emphasis in this second post-sputnik year would be directed towards the so-called "hardware" courses—mathematics, science and foreign languages.

"We're going to be occupied for some five years in cleaning house in these meat and potato projects," he said.

But Conner, who heads up the curriculum program in the state Department of Education, claimed he had not yet been completely sold on the value of offering foreign languages and such high school subjects as geometry in the elementary schools.

"It's a very serious question whether their value will justify crowding the elementary curriculum," he said, "We're so pressed for time to teach reading, arithmetic, spelling and writing."

Conner said he did not want to "pre-judge" the speedup programs, but he added, "I think we can go into it too seriously and pour money down the drain.

"Years before sputnik, it had been determined you could teach kids plane geometry in the second grade. Then why haven't we done it? We've got the job to teach arithmetic, which youngsters need as the basis for advanced work in math and science."

Conner quoted scientists themselves as feeling "the worst thing you could devise is a program out of balance, geared to scientists."

He said the textbooks up for possible adoption this year are texts in the field of reading. Books submitted by 22 publishers will be sent during the year to teachers and administrators for their comments.

Conner said that one of the texts used for years in California was selected five years ago as the basic reading textbook in England.

"When they say 'Johnny can't read' that is not true," he said. "The best thing we do is teach reading."

Locust Plagues Of '70s Could Recur, Smithsonian Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Smithsonian Institute today suggested the chilling possibility that the locust plagues of 70 years ago could happen again.

During the 1870s, the Great Plains were devastated by the locusts—grasshoppers with the unusual habit of migrating long distances. In many extensive areas they devoured nearly all vegetation in the way, leaving mere remnants of crops behind them.

They moved in enormous hordes, often blacking out the sun.

The Smithsonian, in announcing publication of a report on the grasshopper plague, noted that the invasions slackened in the late 1870s. The last authentic specimens of the Rocky Mountain grasshopper, the main species represented, were collected in 1902.

But the report adds: "The possibility that a nucleus or remnant population of this grasshopper still exisits somewhere, although not an estimated fact, hardly can be ignored."

Industry Wins Changes In Smog Rules

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Control Officer Benjamin Linsky told the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Board yesterday that his staff has decided to make three changes in proposed regulation two for the control of industrial smog emissions.

The changes had been urged by industry representatives during public hearings on the controversial regulation, and were supported by the advisory council of the district.

Linsky said the revisions were necessary in order to "gain better public acceptance" for the regulation.

The proposed changes include:

1. Boosting the proposed 45-pound total of dusts and droplets in operation where more than 50 tons of material is processed per hour.

2. Permitting sulphur oxide stack emissions up to 2,000 parts per million if tight ground level monitoring is maintained.

3. Eliminating limits on sulphur oxide emissions in fuel burning, subject to a board policy statement that public hearings would be opened within two years if pollution problems make it advisable.

Linsky also urged that five proposals for motor vehicle exhaust control be put into effect. One proposal would ask Gov. Edmund G. Brown to convene the Legislature to take the necessary steps on vehicle exhaust control when ever devices are available.

Gift Shop Moved To Corte Madera

The Tamal Treasure Chest, a gift shop formerly located in Mill Valley, has reopened at 34 Tamalpais drive, Corte Madera.

Miss Ruth M. Reynolds operates the shop, which offers greeting cards and stationery in addition to a large stock of imported and domestic gift items. The latter include glassware, china, jewelry, silverware, figurines, lamps and linens.

Until three months ago, the Tamal Treasure Chest was operated by Miss Reynolds at 206 East Blithedale avenue, Mill Valley. She was at that location 12 years and, before that, had a shop on Mill Valley's Lytton square for about 10 years.

Brown Decides Not To Close Public Lands

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown says fire hazards aren't serious enough to justify closing California forests to hunters, fishermen and campers.

He warned, however, after a meeting yesterday that if potential fire conditions get worse he will immediately close the 40 million acres of land. Only public campgrounds would be unaffected.

U. S. forestry officials, who took part in the conference with state fish and game, natural resource and forestry officials, said they would follow suit on their 20 million acres.

Brown, who had been asked by lumber industry representatives to close the land for an indefinite period, said that although the situation is serious, fire danger rating conditions have improved slightly.

Still, he said, temperatures are higher than normal and humidity and rainfall is below normal, with no rain forecast for 30 days.

Brown said he will be in daily contact with forestry officials and "if conditions return to the extreme danger that existed in July and the first two-thirds of August, I may be forced to proclaim a general closure."

He called on Californians to continue exercising what he called the admirable caution they have used in forest areas since they were alerted to the hazardous conditions.

NEW BILL EXPECTED

Hopes Good For Early Trinity Project Start

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Federal officials here say that work on some state water projects in the vetoed public works bill—including Trinity dam power facilities—may yet get under way this year.

U.S. Reclamation Commissioner Floyd E. Dominy, meeting with California water officials yesterday, said that if Congress submits a new public works measure as expected it will undoubtedly include the $2,415,000 originally asked for the Trinity project.

He noted that in vetoing the bill last week, President Eisenhower objected to funds for new projects, but indicated that Trinity power construction should begin immediately since the dam is near completion.

Dominy said he expects the President to stick by his objection to new construction, which means there would probably be no action this year on such projects as the proposed New Hogan Dam.

Other projects in the vetoed bill, those under jurisdiction of the Army Corps of Engineers, may also be started this year, whatever the Congress or President does, corps officers indicated.

They said they have authority to go ahead on an interim basis with such projects as Success and Terminus Dams and the Sacramento Deep Water Channel.

As for future California projects, a group of local water agency officials met yesterday with Dominy and state Sen. Virgil O'Sullivan (D-Williams) to outline recommendations for $86,883,000 in projects to be undertaken by the Reclamation Bureau in 1960 and 61.

A little more than 64 million dollars would be spent on the Trinity project.

Another 12 million dollars would go for the Klamath Project, principally in the Tule Lake Division; the Washoe Project, connecting Nevada and California facilities; and for general investigation, operation and maintenance.

Tomorrow will be dress rehearsal day for new students of Redwood, Tamalpais and Sir Francis Drake high schools.

The official name is Orientation Day, and it means a half day of school for incoming freshmen and all transfer students.

After opening assemblies at all three schools, the new students will briefly attend all six of their classes. In some cases instructors will outline courses and distribute textbooks.

Assemblies are scheduled for 8:30 a.m. at Tamalpais and Drake high schools and 9 a.m. at Redwood.

Orientation day will end at 11:30 a.m. at Drake, noon at Redwood and 12:30 p.m. at Tamalpais.

New York To Add Policemen In War On Juvenile Violence

Young Hoodlum Pair Booked On Homicide Charge

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner says he will add 1,080 policemen to help stamp out juvenile violence, which has resulted in four murders since Aug. 23.

After police arrested two teen-age Puerto Ricans yesterday for killing two youths in a public playground last Sunday, Wagner said the police department would be brought to its fully authorized strength of 24,508 men.

The mayor directed City Budget Director Abraham D. Beame to report today on what "sacrifices" may be necessary in other city programs to bolster the police force.

CONFERENCE CALLED

In addition to Wagner's city hall meeting, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was to hold an emergency conference today to discuss with state officials a "more effective cordination" of all agencies in reducing youthful crime.

There has been official talk of a curfew for youth on New York streets.

Rockefeller invited FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to attend a meeting of city and state officials next Tuesday. Hoover said a previous commitment would make it impossible for him to be here.

Booked on homicide charges were "Cape Man" Salvatore Agron, 16, and "Umbrella Man" Antonio Luis Hernandez, 17.

WIELDED KNIFE

Agron has admitted wielding a knife during the senseless slaying of Robert Young and Anthony Krzesinski, both 16, but he would not admit to police responsibility for any deaths.

Herandez, whom police say carries an umbrella and uses it as a weapon, had admitted nothing. Six youths have now been formally charged with homicide in the case.

Police seized Hernandez and the cocky Agron, who wore a nurse-type cape and called himself Dracula, early yesterday as they were rummaging through garbage cans.

VAMPIRE GANG LEADERS—"Cape Man" Salvatore Agron, 16, right, and "Umbrella Man" Antonio Luis Hernandez, 17, are shown as the two leaders of New York's youthful street gang, the Vampires, were booked yesterday on homicide charges stemming from the fatal stabbings of two teen-agers on a Manhattan playground last Sunday. (AP Wirephoto)

Agron, leader of the Vampire Gang, was quoted as saying: "We went there to the playground to get the Irish and Italians. We heard Puerto Ricans were being pushed around in the neighborhood."

Two Puerto Ricans held on first-degree murder charges in two other slayings—on Aug. 23—were brought yesterday before General Sessions Judge Gerald P. Culkin. They were John Cruz, 18, and Miguel Castro, 17, arrested in the lower east side gang slaying of Theresa Gee, 15, and Julio Rosario, 14.

Cruz entered a plea of innocent. Castro was sent to Bellevue Hospital for psychiatric tests.

Youth Knifed In Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP)—A new stabbing in Brooklyn gave added urgency today to official efforts to stamp out juvenile violence that has taken four lives in little more than a week.

Dominick Scuderi, 18, suffered serious knife wounds in the side yesterday when he and three companions were attacked on a street by 15 other youths. He was taken to a hospital.

Police said they believed the attackers were Puerto Ricans belonging to a gang known as the Majestics.

Air Force Ends Hunt For Crew Of Ghost Plane

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Air Force has given up its search for the remains of nine crewmen of a World War II "ghost bomber."

The American fliers parachuted into the Libyan desert from their B24 bomber 16 years ago after blasting Naples, Italy.

Their plane was found last spring by a team of geologists. It had apparently made a pilotless belly-landing on the hard-packed sand 440 miles southeast of the Libyon port of Bengasi.

NO COMBAT SCARS

The bomber bore no combat scars. Logbook, instruments and radio was untouched. Water jugs were full and flight gear was hanging from racks inside the plane.

Termination of the combined air-ground search leaves one of the great mysteries of World War II unsolved.

The search, which began July 5, covered more than 6,000 miles and no new traces of the missing crewmen were found, the Air Force said.

MARKERS FOUND

The expanded search in July used helicopters and vehicles.

"The only new discovery was another parachute. This accounted for the ninth crew member but it added nothing to clues since it was located nearest the wrecked aircraft indicating that it belonged to the pilot—the last to jump." The eight other parachutes marked the previously discovered trail.

Production Of Ford Economy Car Under Way At Factory In Ohio

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — The second of the Big Three's new economy cars went into production today as Ford started building Falcons at Lorain, Ohio.

Chevrolet has been assembling Corvairs at nearby Willow Run since mid-July. Chrysler's Valiant will roll off Detroit assembly lines within another month.

The three cars represent a sharp reversal in thinking by Detroit automakers who have been on a longer,lower, more expensive trend throughout the postwar period.

The Corvair will be the first of the new ones into the marketplace, making its public bow about Oct. 2. The Falcon will go on sale Oct. 8. The Valiant probably will be along about Nov. 14.

Vital statistics have been released only on the Falcon. These came yesterday in a 21-city closed circuit telecast for newsmen.

The Falcon is 15 feet, one inch long, against 17-4 for a 1959 Ford; four feet six and one half inches high against four feet eight inches and five feet ten inches wide against six feet four inches. It weighs 2,366 pounds, compared with 3,570 pounds for the lightest 1959 Ford model.

The Corvair will offer America's first rear-engined models, using a flat six-cylinder aluminum power plant. Registration weight on test cars in Michigan has been 2,400 pounds.

The six-cylinder Falcon engine, of cast iron, is rated at 90 horsepower. The Corvair probably will be rated slightly more, as will the Valiant. The Valiant, like the Falcon, is using a cast iron six-cylinder engine mounted in front.

No prices have been announced.

One report this week said the cheapest stripped Corvair will list as just over $1,800. The Falcon and Valiant will be in the same range. But it will cost the best part of $2,000 to get delivery on any one of them by the time taxes, delivery charges and a minimum number of accessories are included.

All three will offer automatic transmissions as well as straight stick models. But almost none of the other power options, such as power steering and brakes, will be available, at least in the beginning. The Falcon will have air conditioning available early in 1960.

Ford claims 30 miles per gallon performance for the Falcon with standard transmission and at least 50 per cent better gas mileage than any current American car with any transmission.

HIS HOMER WINS FOR GIANTS—Jackie Brandt, San Francisco Giants third baseman is greeted at home-plate by Felipe Alou (23) and bat boy after his ninth inning homer that gave the Giants a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday. It was Brandt's 12th homer of the season. (AP Wirephoto)

HR Punch Key To S.F. Flag Hopes

Power hitting is becoming more and more important for the San Francisco Giants since two regular infielders have been sidelined.

Three home runs paid off yesterday in the Giants' 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs in the opener of an 18-game home stand that should prove decisive.

Jackie Brandt's 365-foot drive, which just cleared the left field fence, provided a sudden ending to the contest with one out in the last of the ninth.

It also gave veteran right-hander Sam Jones, who came on in ninth inning relief of Mike McCormick, his 18th victory of the campaign.

Asked if power wouldn't have to play an even more important part with both third baseman Jimmy Davenport and second baseman Daryl Spencer on the injured list, Manager Bill Rigney replied, "That's absolutely right."

The Giants needed that victory to stay 1½ games ahead as runnerup Los Angeles whipped St. Louis 9-6. Milwaukee lost to Philadelphia and dropped four games back and Pittsburgh dropped two to Cincinnati to settle five games behind.

San Francisco collected just five hits against the Cubs, but three were homers—by Felipe Alou in the fourth, Willie McCovey in the sixth and Brandt's decider.

Rookie McCovey ran his hitting streak to 15 games and he has belted nine homers in the 30 games he has played for the club. Alou had knocked in the first run with a second inning sacrifice following singles by Orlando Cepeda and Brandt.

McCormick had a two-hitter going into the ninth with Bobby Thomson's fifth inning homer the only run against him. Then Tony Taylor and George Altman singled in succession. Rigney went to the bullpen for Jones who struck out Dale Long but gave up run producing singles to Ernie Banks and Walt Moryn to tie the count at 3-3.

"I wish I could have given it to Mike," Jones declared in the clubhouse. "He pitched some ball game."

If he hadn't gone in relief, Jones would have started today's game against Chicago. Instead Rigney nominated ace left-hander Johnny Antonelli (18-7) to face right-hander Bob Anderson (11-9).

"If we had blown this one, you don't know what would have happened," said Rigney. Earlier he had declared:

"If we just get over a couple of these right here, we can win the thing. This is going to be the darnedest race the National League has ever had."

Davenport, who has been out with a knee injury, got back in for an inning defensively for the first time. "It felt pretty good, but I didn't have to do anything on it."

Spencer injured his left thumb in Los Angeles on Sunday and still cannot hold the bat properly.

KNEE TROUBLE ENDS CAL STAR'S CAREER

Coach Pete Elliott said the 6 foot 3, 220 pounder could have been a great center had it not been for the knee trouble.

Chiappone tore a ligament in his right knee yesterday, spelling finish for the senior. Last season on the first day of scrimmage he injured his left knee. In 1957, the right one was hurt in the first game.

Elliott has three lettermen, Terry Jones, Andy Segale and Frank Doretti, fighting for the center job.

Coach Bill Barnes drilled his UCLA Bruins on pass defense and moved some players around. He sent Don Warner from guard to blocking back, Steve Bauwens from guard to tackle, Foster Anderson from tackle to center.

There was no heavy work for the Southern Cal Trojans, who spent their time sharpening the timing for the plays. A scrimmage is set for Saturday.

CARDS TO SCRIMMAGE

At Stanford, Coach Jack Curtice scheduled a Saturday scrimmage. He said he had planned to wait until next week, but his athletes arrived in such good shape that they will be ready to bang heads in a few days.

Passing was emphasized at the San Jose State workout, and not much of anything was done at College of the Pacific where the gridders posed for cameramen.

Washington worked on its pass defense and Washington State tried to figure a way to stop Cal from scoring in their opener.

At Oregon, Coach Len Casanova drilled Bill Betcher, Stu Pillette, Joe Clesceri, Riley Mattson and Jack Stone at guard and tackle.

Reds Jolt Bucs' Title Hopes; Bums Win, Braves Bow Again

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pittsburgh's Pirates finally have stumbled in that National League pennant race, stubbing their toes on a club they've walked all over this season.

The Cincinnati Reds, who had won only 5 of 16 from Pittsburgh, jolted the fourth-place Pirates twice with a 6-3 and 2-1 sweep in a twi-night doubledearer last night.

A three-run homer by Willie Jones won the opener, ending the Pirates' latest winning string at five. Then Don Newcombe out-dueled Bob Friend in the second game.

TRAIL BY FIVE

That spilled Pittsburgh five games behind San Francisco's first-place Giants, who defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-3 on Jackie Brandt's ninth-inning homer. Second-place Los Angeles stayed within 1½ games of the lead by beating St. Louis 9-6 after trailing by four runs. Philadelphia again beat Milwaukee, 11-5.

Vern Law (15-8) was the first-game loser for the Pirates, giving up singles by Gus Bell and Frank Robinson before Jones rapped his tie-breaking homer in the eighth against unbeaten reliever Elroy Face. Vada Pinson and Robinson also homered for the Reds.

A triple by Johnny Temple and Pinson's double broke a 1-1 tie in the nightcap eighth for Cincinnati against Friend (8-16).

The Dodgers blew a 1-0 lead when the Cardinals scored five unearned runs in the third inning ,three on Curt Flood's homer. They finally put it away against reliever Bob Duliba (0-1) with two runs in the sixth on Gil Hodges' single and a double by Charlie Neal. Chuck Churn (1-0) was the winner in relief as the Dodgers set a major league pitching record with 899 strikeouts for the season. The old mark was 896, set by Detroit in 1946.

Carl Sawatski drove in four runs for the Phils, chasing Burdette (18-14) with a three-run homer for a 6-2 lead in the sixth inning. Robin Roberts (12-15), won it.

Yankee Swimmers May Score Pan-Am Sweep

CHICAGO (UPI)—The United States beat the best of the western hemisphere in track and field, winning 26 of 32 gold medals, and Uncle Sam's swimmers today were en route to an even more impressive show in the Pan American Games.

U.S. athletes took the first three gold medals awarded in swimming, and set a world record in one trial, and in the process defeated Cuba's Manuel Sanguily, the athlete given the best chance to halt U.S. domination.

Aquatic experts now feel the U.S. men and women swimmers might go home with every one of the 20 gold medals at stake in the event, thus surpassing the track and field crew. The track and field squad, though, set 22 Pan American records and finished 1-2-3 in 10 events.

Over-all the U.S. has won 46 of 56 gold medals so far.

Yesterday U.S. track and field members won five of seven events, four of them in record time. John J. Kelley, Boston, led a 1-2-4 Yank finish with the first U.S. marathon victory in an international race in 51 years, setting a Pan American record of 2 hours, 27 minutes, 54.2 seconds. James Green, 26, Brockton, Mass., was second, also breaking the old record.

Other track gold medals on record performances, went to Dyrol Burleson, a University of Oregon sophomore who will be 20 next spring, in the 1,500 meter run; Buster Quist, Albuquerque, N.M., in the javelin; to the women's 400 meter relay team of Barbara Jones and Lucinda Williams, Nashville, Tenn., Isabelle Daniels, Jakin, Ga., and Wilma Rudolph, Clarksville, Tenn.; and the men's 400 meter relay team.

Nancy Ramey, a 19-year-old Seattle, Wash., swimmer, broke her own world record in the women's 100 meter butterfly trials and every U.S. entrant qualified. Gary Tobian, Glendale, Calif., led a sweep of the 3-meter men's springboard diving. Jeff Farrell, Wichita, Kan., won the 110-meter freestyle in record time and William Mulliken, Champaign, Ill., set a record in winning the 200-meter breaststroke. Sanguily, the previous record holder, was third behind Mulliken.

Other U.S. individual gold medal winners were pert Trish Galvin, 20, Santa Barbara, Calif., in equestrian dressage, and Aubrey E. Smith, Columbus, Ga., in center fire pistol shooting.

Team medals were won by the U.S. in center fire pistol shooting, the 4,000-meter pursuit race in cycling and the men's epee fencing team.

Two U.S. yachtsmen, Harry Sindle, Little Falls, N.J., in the Flying Dutchman class, and George O'Day, Dover, Mass., in the 5.5-meter class, pulled so far ahead of their challengers they could sit out the remaining races and still win the championship.

Six of the ten U.S. boxers advanced into championship bouts. They were featherweight Charles Brown, Cincinnati, O., light welterweight Vincent Shomo, New York, light middleweight Wilbert McClure, Toledo, O., middleweight Bobby Foster, York, Pa., light heavyweight Amos Johnson, Stockton, Calif., and heavyweight Allen Hudson, Glencove, N.Y.

Antonelli, Sam Good Bets To Win 20 Games

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Giants stand a good chance of boasting two 20-game pitchers by the end of the season, something they haven't been able to do since 1951.

Sad Sam Jones won in relief yesterday, 4-3, from the Chicago Cubs and now has an 18-12 record. Johnny Antonelli, who was slated to pitch today, has an 18-7 record.

With 22 games left on the San Francisco schedule, each should get four or five more chances for the two needed victories.

The last two Giants to win as many as 20 games in a season were Larry Jansen, who was 23-11, and Sal Maglie, who was 23-6, when the Giants were in New York eight years ago.

The only Giant pitcher to win that many since is Antonelli, who had a 21-7 record in 1954 and was 20-13 in 1956.

When the Giants' drive toward a pennant folded last year because of a lack of chuckers, the club traded for both Jones and Jack Sanford. Jones came from St. Louis and Sanford, who is now 12-11, came from Philadelphia.

HANLEY'S RECORD

Bunt Failure Led To Whiff Record

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

Sandy Koufax is the new all-time strikeout king of the National League with 18 Ks because a sacrifice bunt failed to work.

The Dodger southpaw had notched 13 of his strikeouts by the seventh inning, but still that string had not checked the Giants who were leading 2-1.

John Roseboro, Dodger catcher and seventh man in the batting order, led off the bottom of the seventh inning with a clean single to right.

Maury Wills, Dodger shortstop and the eighth batter, dropped a good bunt several feet in front of the plate toward the pitcher's mound. Both Jack Sanford and Bob Schmidt raced for it. Schmidt got it and made a perfect throw to Eddie Bressoud at second for an extremely close force out of Roseboro.

Had the sacrifice worked, Dodger manager Walt Alston definitely would have sent a pinch-hitter to bat for Koufax. With the tying run on second, Alston could not have escaped severe criticism if he did not substitute Ron Fairly or Rip Repulski for Koufax.

HOWEVER, with Wills on first instead of Roseboro on second, Alston did permit Koufax to come to bat and the 82,794 Coliseum fans roared their approval. Koufax bunted, as anticipated, and it was a good sacrifice moving Wills to second although he was left stranded there and the Dodgers didn't win the game until the ninth on Wally Moon's three-run homer.

Thus, Koufax got his chance to break Dizzy Dean's record of 17 Ks that has been in the book since July 30, 1933, when he whiffed that many Cubs in St. Louis.

And in breaking Dean's record, Koufax also tied Bob Feller's major league mark established Oct. 2, 1938, against Detroit. Koufax, incidentally, enjoyed a better fate than Feller who lost that game 2-0.

KOUFAX deserves all the credit that has been given him because his string of Ks was longer at the top than bottom. He fanned Jackie Brandt three times, Willie McCovey twice, Willie Mays twice and Orlando Cepeda twice.

The middle of the string had two neatly fashioned Ks, one with Felipe Alou's name on it, the other Bob Schmidt's.

The bottom part: two for Eddie Bressoud, two for Danny O'Connell and three for Jack Sanford.

However, in according Koufax all credit due him, we cannot help wondering what Dean and Feller would do under those Coliseum lights if they were firing the ball today like they were a generation ago.

THE COLISEUM is a dream place at night for a man with a fast ball and good curve. The Coliseum lights certainly have more candlestick power than Edison's first bulb—but seemingly not much more. The shadows in the cavernous joint give it a hobgoblin Halloween feeling at times. At least, that's the feeling of the ball players.

Only the men who face the pitcher in the Coliseum express their displeasure more colorfully and emphatically.

There's one thing for which they can be thankful—that Feller and Dean are not wheeling and dealing in this generation. Either one of them might come very close to the ultimate in baseball perfection at the Coliseum: 27 up and 27 down—all of them Ks.

Pop Warner Grid Debut Postponed

Opening of the Pop Warner Football Conference season in Marin County, scheduled for tonight, has been postponed because installation of a new lighting system at College of Marin field has not been completed.

The opening double-header has been put off until Sept. 13. Games are scheduled between Mill Valley and San Anselmo and Redwood Junior Giants and the San Rafael Rangers.

Tam High Pool Open

Tamalpais High School's swimming pool will remain open daily through next Monday, Labor Day, it was announced today by Recreation Director Charles Crawford.

However, thereafter the pool will be open only on weekends as long as weather permits.

'ACE' UPSET IN TV BOUT

Tiger Wants Crack At Joey Giardello

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — Unranked Dick Tiger, the British Empire champion, has handed fifth-ranked middleweight Gene "Ace" Armstrong his first pro loss. But the optimistic Armstrong feels defeat has some blessings.

"I'll be more relaxed, and my future opponents might be less aggressive," he said. "I won't have a winning record to keep going and they won't have one to knock off."

Tiger's decision over Armstrong in their 10-round nationally televised fight last night at Convention Hall was Gene's first defeat in 18 fights.

Tiger, a Nigerian, speaks little English, but he nodded approval when his manager Jersey Jones said the next "victim" should be fourth-ranked Joey Giardello.

Tiger, an inside fighter who relied almost exclusively on a left hook, knocked Armstrong down in the third round. It was the first knockdown of Gene's career.

From then on Tiger, 30, had the upper hand and he staggered Armstrong several times. Armstrong, 27, a fast-moving fighter with a classic style, tried to stay away from Tiger, but couldn't.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP

White Sox Lead By 5½ As Donovan, Big Klu Deliver

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dick Donovan definitely is back, Ted Kluszewski has delivered his first RBI and Chicago's White Sox have a 5½-game lead in the run for their first American League pennant in 40 years.

They regained that bulge by sweeping Detroit 7-2 and 11-4 in a twi-night double-header last night. Donovan, the right-hander who's had shoulder trouble, followed up last Saturday's clutch shutout against Cleveland with a four-hitter in the opener. And Klu then singled to keep things rolling in an 11-run fifth inning that nailed the second game.

Cleveland's second-place Indians ended their skid at four games by beating Kansas City 6-3, although southpaw Herb Score failed again.

New York skipped past Detroit into third place with a 4-3 victory over Washington, and Baltimore defeated Boston 4-0 behind the seven-hit pitching of Billy O'Dell.

The White Sox gave Donovan a quick 7-0 lead in the opener with Sherm Lollar smacking Frank Lary (17-9) for a pair of two-run doubles. Donovan, who tired and gave way to reliever Gerry Staley in the ninth, had a one-hit shutout until the seventh inning, when Charlie Maxwell hit his 28th home run. Maxwell had three of the Tigers' four hits and drove in both runs, singling home the other in the eighth.

Paul Foytack (13-12) had the Sox blanked on three hits and led 3-0 before they opened up for their 11 in the fifth—scoring 10 of 'em with two out.

Al Smith got it started with his 13th homer, and with two out. Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox singled. Jim Landis walked, loading the bases, and Klu then came through, touching off a string of six consecutive singles before Fox finished it off with a three-run triple.

Rookie Joe Stanka was the winner.

With the Tigers' streak ended at five, the Yankees took third by a half game, beating the Senators on Yogi Berra's 18th homer—a two-run shot that broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth. Jim Coates 4-1 won it in relief. Camilo Pascual (12-16) lost it.

The Orioles got two runs in the second against Tom Brewer (8-10). Doubles by Bob Boyd and Barry Shetrone, a walk, bunt and an error did it.

The Indians came from behind and beat Ned Garver (9-11) with five runs in the third as Tito Francona lined a two-run single and Woody Held counted two more with a double. Gary Bell (15-11) won it with nine innings of five-hit relief after Score was chased with two runs in, the bases loaded and none out in the first.

Milwaukee Crowd Roars As Red Schoendienst Returns

MILWAUKEE (AP)—"Schoendienst batting for Pizzaro" came over the loudspeaker at the Milwaukee County Stadium last night.

With a roar 18,047 fans got to their feet and cheered Red Schoendienst who went into a Milwaukee Braves game for the first time since he was stricken with tuberculosis last winter. He batted for Juan Pizarro and grounded out, but the crowd didn't mind as the Braves were taking a bad beating—finally losing 11-5. Red's appearance gave them something to cheer about.

"I had more butterflies than I ever had," the popular second baseman said with a grin afterwards. "It was truly a big moment.

"It makes a guy happy to have everyone pulling for you when you're down. And its a double thrill to come back and receive tremendous ovation. It makes you feel you're still wanted."

COP To Use Pro-Type Offense—Wide Open

STOCKTON (AP)—Jack Myers puts it quite bluntly: He is coaching his senior-studded College of the Pacific football boys to become pros if that is what they want to be.

"I like to see these kids develop into pros and make some of that money," he said yesterday while watching his squad, which includes 24 seniors and 17 lettermen, pose for the cameraman.

"The public goes for the wide open play of the pros. We give the fans that sort of football. And we'll do it even more this season.

"Instead of having Dick Bass strictly as a runner, we'll use him as a flanker so we can throw him some passes."

Bass, the nation's 1959 collegiate champ in three categories—1,440 yards total offense, 1,361 yards rushing and 116 points scored—was the No. 1 draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams. His class was graduated so he was eligible for the draft. He missed a year due to injuries, so is in his final season.

Senior Bob Denton, a 231-pound tackle, has been tabbed by the Cleveland Browns. Injuries kept him out last season, but he is fit now as a key man in a line which averages 213 pounds.

Carl Kammerer, a big guard with All-America potential and regarded as the heart of the COP defense in 1958 is out for this season. He broke a hip in a logging camp accident. Although he must wait until 1960 to play his senior year, Myers is convinced the pro clubs already have plans for him.

"Ola Murchison (a 6 foot 3 end from Foresthill who can run the hundred in 9.6 seconds) also has the potential of becoming a professional," Myers surmised.

"And so might Henry Wallace" (a 191-pound fullback from Long Beach).

COP mentors feel they might come up with a real sleeper in Bob Cabanyog, a transfer from Hartnell Junior College. He is rated such a swift runner that when he is in the backfield with Bass he may keep the defense from concentrating on Vallejo's Rapid Richard.

Giants Have Been Steady All Year; Contenders Now Feeling Pressure

"Und comes it now," or "Der Tag," or what have you?

CONNOLLY

That is the layout as the S.F. Giants yesterday began their last home stay of the season, coming to grips with the Cubs (3), St. Louis (3), Pittsburgh (2), Phillies (3), Reds (2), Braves (2), Dodgers (3). Then the last five games on the road are two with the Cubs and three with St. Louis to end the 1959 pennant chase.

All you can say for the Rigneymen is that they've been consistently winning. Breaking it down I find that victories, on a month to month basis, are steady. For instance in April the Giants won 9 and lost 7; in May it was 17 and 12; June 17 and 14; July 14 and 12 and August 16 and 13.

So that entering the final month of the pennant chase it is going to take some nifty ball playing and better hitting than has been forthcoming the past 10 days.

It would be heartless to say the Giants haven't been hustling. The team has rolled along in high gear one day and in reverse the next. But never have they flattened out—completely, unless you call that Pirate game of recent date an en foldo.

ONE OF the hardest schedules of recent years has been the plight of the Giants and the Dodgers. Those three-week road trips sap the strength and endurance of the California teams. But there seems no way to get around it unless more clubs come into the league from the western shores of the USA.

The Giants' lead is less than it could be today because of the penalty of using inexperienced key players. But if they hadn't afforded Orlando Cepeda a chance last year, they'd have never discovered the great young Puerto Rican first sacker.

Third sacker Jim Davenport, at the height of his development, was injured on the road trip. Replacing a third baseman in the heat of a pennant race constitutes a miracle. For awhile it looked like Brandt and O'Connell and Pagan might perform such a miracle, but they fell short in the clinches.

ADD TO the loss of Davenport a couple of costly boots by Willie McCovey, Brandt, and one bad one by Willie Mays, and you get a pretty good reason for the soapy slide of the Giants to their slim lead.

But with a nice fat home stay and some heartening weather promised, the Giants could rally and deliver the Bay Area its first National League pennant and first World Series.

It's going to take a lot to stay in front, but the soothing part of it all is that for the past month the "pressure" has been on the Giants, practically alone.

Now with the Dodgers, Braves and Pirates "in it" the pressure goes to them. When you're behind eight or nine games, you have no pressure. But when you're up there within striking distance of the leaders, you get the pressure also.

SO I LOOK for the front runners to get the jitters just as the Giants have had 'em and, if it occurs, you can look for some gosh awful collapses from our nearest neighbors.

Don't count out the Giants. They're still in it, up to their ears. And let's hope they clobber themselves out of all mental lapses from now on.

Cal Cyclist Wins Four Events In U.S. Races

CHICAGO (AP)—Ron Emmick of Menlo Park, Calif., won four races yesterday in the American Motorcycle Assn. short track championships, breaking three track records. He won the eight-lap feature on the quartermile track in 2:11.78, the six-lap in 1:37.87 and did one lap in 16.05.

Plenty Of Talent Available For Another Major League

By FRANK ECK

(AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor)

"Where will they get the players?"

That's the favorite question you hear these days when people mention the embryonic Continental League, whose backers envision a third major league.

It's going to be easy to get players from National and American League rosters, and Commissioner Ford Frick, National League President Warren Giles and American League President Joe Cronin realize this.

It seems nobody has stopped to consider how many dissatisfied players there are in, or close to being in, the majors right now.

Let's take a look at the situation in various quarters.

Cleveland took a chance on Jim Baxes and he won several games with home runs. The Los Angeles Dodgers were surprised. They had him for a number of years. Last April they ordered Baxes to report to Spokane. He refused and Cleveland picked him up.

Elmer Valo, a 10-year man, obtained his release last winter from Los Angeles with the stipulation he could make a deal for himself. No deal came so he reported to Spokane. Cleveland finally picked him up.

Phoenix tried to sell Dusty Rhodes for $20,000 last spring. When nobody took him the San Francisco Giants put him back on the big club.

The third league probably will see some contract jumping. One reason will be money.

Will clubs in the National and American League take action against contract jumpers? The chances are they won't for if they did they would leave themselves open to monopoly charges from Congress.

After all, didn't a number of big leaguers jump to the Mexican League in 1946? Sal Maglie was one, and the Barber learned to pitch south of the border. Lasted four years there and came back to be a big man for the New York Giants.

The Continental League certainly figures to do better than the Mexican League. It will have stronger backing for one thing, and will have cities that have been crying for big league ball for a long time.

There are hundreds of players in the high minor leagues who feel they can play big league ball. They include Sandy Amoros, Luke Easter, Bobby Del Greco, Joe Altobelli, Ossie Virgil, Luis Marquez, Steve Bilko, Paul Pettit, the $100,000 bonus player no longer obligated to Pittsburgh, Lou Skizas, Dee Fondy, Bill Renna and Nippy Jones.

There are some strange names doing well in the majors this year—Harmon Killebrew, Bob Allison, Jim Baxes, George Strickland, Woody Held, Tito Francona and Eli Grba.

The present major league owners have much at stake in the minor league setup, as witness the money they have been spending to keep the minors going the last three years. Many of the players for the new league will come from the present minor league setup.

Eisenhower Urges NATO Nations To Take Firm Stand

Ike Makes Unscheduled Visit To Address Western Ministers

PARIS (UPI)—President Eisenhower assured the Western Allies today there are no "second place" nations in NATO. He called on the 15 members of the North Atlantic Alliance to stand firm behind their collective principles in the interest of world peace.

The President said that if the Allies support NATO as staunchly as their individual countries "then there will be no war—then there will be peace."

The President made a sudden, unscheduled visit to NATO headquarters before beginning top secret talks with French President Charles de Gaulle in an effort to heal their glaring differences before Eisenhower meets with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

NO NEW PROPOSALS

Eisenhower told the ministers that he went before them with no new proposals but merely in gratitude and praise for the work of the permanent council.

"The United States seeks no position in NATO except that of an equal partner ready to work with all member nations regardless of their size," said Eisenhower.

NATO Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak thanked Eisenhower for his appearance and remarked, "We have complete trust in you."

The NATO foreign ministers were scheduled to debate today and tomorrow Eisenhower's forthcoming meetings with Khrushchev. Then they were expected to back the U.S. President fully for the encounters.

GOES INTO SECLUSION

Eisenhower arranged to go into seclusion this afternoon for talks with de Gaulle at the French President's country residence, Chateau Rambouillet, 27 miles southwest of Paris.

Informed sources said the Eisenhower-de Gaulle talks yesterday were in the preliminary stage but got off to a promising beginning.

They reported that the French leader was gradually unfolding his ideas for a settlement of the nationalist rebellion in Algeria and France's demands for a place in NATO councils equal to that of the United States and Britain.

Diplomatic sources said the two presidents also covered possibilities of a summit conference and the Berlin situation.

TALKS TO THRONG

"Everything has gone very well between us," de Gaulle told the throng that packed the square before the hotel de ville (city hall) for the city's official welcome to its visitor.

Eisenhower in turn said the talks began in a "good and encouraging manner."

De Gaulle was believed to have outlined a plan for ending the Algerian war, a plan he hopes will result in U.S. support for France in the U.N. Assembly debate this fall on Algeria.

Eisenhower's visit was bathed in excited affection, pouring out from an estimated million Frenchmen who lined the streets and cheered wildly as the two presidents drove triumphally about the city.

De Gaulle sounded the keynote of the heartfelt reception for Eisenhower when he told the crowd at the hotel de ville: "Although the years pass, nothing can efface the memory of the victory won under his command by the Allied armies and, naturally in France, with soldiers of France.

"Proof that one does not forget? Paris has just given it."

Eisenhower reciprocated the French affection. Choking with emotion, he told the vast throng: "I can only say that over the years, this city, this country has become to me, like it is for almost every American, something very dear."

And then, in his halting French: "Je vous aime, tous"—"I love you, all."

County Authorizes New Apartments

Permits for new construction valued at $364,905 were issued during the last week of August by the Marin County Building Inspection Department for construction in unincorporated areas of the county.

Heading the list of permits were those issued to Kaehler Construction for two apartment buildings of six units each in Leafwood Terrace, Novato. The buildings were valued at $30,000 each.

Among other permits issued last week were 17 for single-family dwellings and three for swimming pools.

11 Marin Schools In Lunch Program

Marin County had 11 schools with 1,687 students participating in the school lunch program last year, Roy E. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction, announced yesterday.

In operation since 1946, the program pays school districts five cents for each lunch they serve a student. By utilizing surplus farm products, schools have been able to add another six cents of aid to their lunches.

U.S. To Beam Nikita Talks Back To Soviet

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. propagandists have come up with an apparent can't-lose proposition by deciding to beam back to the Soviet Union at least two major speeches by Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Slated for live broadcast in full by Voice of America transmitters are Khrushchev's addresses during his visit here to the National Press Club Sept. 16 and to the U.N. General Assembly in New York Sept. 18.

Communist jammers so far have clattered full tilt against Russian language programs aimed their way by the Voice 16½ hours a day. The Reds say the Voice lies.

The Khrushchev broadcasts raise these possibilities:

1. If the Soviets continue to jam, they will be open to worldwide ridicule for clobbering the voice of their own leader.

2. If they don't jam, Soviet listeners will have an unparalleled opportunity to tune in on the American radio.

Juan Manuel de Ayala is believed to be the first white man to sail through the Golden Gate, on Aug. 5, 1775.

Khrushchev Confident Communism Will Win In Peaceful Competition

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev says the West must fall in with the Soviet policy of peaceful coexistence of communism and capitalism or face "the most destructive war in history."

"There is no third choice," the Soviet premier said in an article appearing in the current issue of Foreign Affairs, quarterly review of the Council on Foreign Relations, a private organization of prominent Americans.

Khrushchev said that if relations between the West and the Communist bloc are to improve, "all barriers in international trade must be removed" to let international life develop normally.

The Soviet premier confidently predicted that the Communist system eventually will win out in what he called peaceful competition. But he said this does not mean Communist interference in the affairs of other nations.

Khrushchev accused the North Atlantic Alliance of letting the West Germans convert NATO into an instrument for aggressive plans that could "plunge the whole world into the chasm of a devastating war."

He called West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer a potential stumbling block to the improvement of East-West relations.

Khrushchev wrote: "Some say: The Soviet people are unduly sensitive. Can one assume that West Germany is now in a position to precipitate another world war? Those who put the question thus forget that Western Germany is at present acting in the world arena not alone but within the military North Atlantic bloc.

"She plays a paramount role in this bloc. It is not at all impossible, therefore, that Western Germany, taking advantage of her position in the North Atlantic Alliance, might provoke hostilities in order to draw her allies into it and plunge the whole world into the chasm of a devastating war."

The Soviet premier said the Big Four foreign ministers conference in Geneva brought the two sides closer together but there are still substantial differences on a number of questions.

Khrushchev was paid $150 for his article—entitled "Peaceful Co-existence."

He agreed to write the article before getting an invitation to visit the United States. But he returned to his coming exchange of visits with President Eisenhower and said he believes they will "afford the possibility for a useful exchange of opinions, for finding a common tongue and a common understanding of the questions that should be settled."

A DO-IT-YOURSELF project was the home of the Frank Moitozas Jr., which seems almost opposite the top of Mt. Tamalpais. In keeping with the Hawaiian decor of the House, the patio has tropical plants and flowers, such as the hibiscus. Frank beats out a rhythm on the tom tom as his wife, Evelyn, plays the ukulele.

Frank Moitoza Family Enjoys Playing, Working Together

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

If it be true that "the family that plays together stays together," the Frank Moitozas Jr. of Mill Valley and their three children should be together for all time to come.

Being a well known Hawaiian entertainment combo, they not only "play" music together but "play" together at tennis, swimming, water skiing, and picture taking. And they even work together, for they are great do-it-yourselfers.

As a family they are known throughout Marin for their appearance at friends' parties and charity affairs and for the luau style get-together at their home.

Amazing as it may seem, they have never been to Hawaii, but their home and their entire way of life have been patterned after those in the islands of our newest state.

It all started as a hobby.

TOOK LESSONS

Frank liked the sound of the steel guitar he heard over the KFRC program of Dave Kane, native Hawaiian, and took lessons from him. Evelyn, having been a piano teacher before her marriage to Frank, knew harmony and rhythm and soon learned to play the guitar, as did Robert. And the girls learned the hulas from another native Hawaiian, Bobby Kuala of San Francisco. They also learned to make the typical "ti-leaf" skirts an leis.

Soon they were asked everywhere to entertain.

Six years ago the Moitozas built their home high on a hillside in Mill Valley overlooking West Blithedale Canyon at a point that seems almost across from the top of Mt. Tamalpais, though it is, of course, much lower.

After the site was cleared and the skeleton of the 3-bedroom, 2-bath home roughed in by two carpenters, Moitoza did the rest of the work himself, including much rock masonry, cabinets and tiling.

By profession he is executive secretary of the San Francisco Federation of Municipal Employees and editor of their "Digest." Before that he had spent six years as secretary to the resident engineer, Robert Cole, on the Golden Gate Bridge, and was official photographer for all photographs taken from the Marin side of the cable construction.

But the only training he had in connection with house construction was some architectural and mechanical drafting studies in high school.

Hawaiian decor is followed throughout the garden and house—highlights in the huge patio being a very large fountain and lily pool, another fountain serving as a birdbath that attracts flocks of wild canaries and humming birds, and a number of tropical plants such as hibiscus.

TURQUOISE FOUNTAIN

In the house there is another four-level turqoise fountain in the corner of the living room, for which Robert did the wiring and put in the pump system. Wall papers have Hawaiian scenes and such designs as tapa cloth patterns, hibiscus blooms and deep sea motifs.

The Moitozas are practically native Marinites, Frank having lived in Tiburon since he was four years old, and Evelyn in Mill Valley since she was two. And they met in Mill Valley through their mutual interest in tennis.

Their theories and practice in child rearing are worth noting.

Said Moitoza, "We can't stand brats, and insist on discipline. But every child is not the same. Each one must be disciplined in his own way, and there must be no discrepancy between what "Mother" says, and what "Father" says.

"We never had to lay a hand on our kids. We play with them and work with them. But they are definitely told that they must know what their place is—and they stay in it."

Some day the Moitozas hope to visit Hawaii.

St. Francis Annual Festival To Feature Buffet Luncheon

The Ninth Annual Fall Festival will be held on Sept. 19 on the Church grounds of St. Francis Episcopal Church, Fifth and Grant avenues, Novato.

The chairman of the luncheon committee, Mrs. Carl Williams, will open for business at 11:30 a.m. and will serve a buffet luncheon until 2 p.m. She will be assisted by Mesdames L. B. Griffith, Ivan Schomaker, and Gale Walline.

There will be games, pony rides, fortune telling and make-up booths for the children. Also, this year there will be a merry-go-round at the hot dog booth and a kiddie korner where Mrs. Harry Thomas will tell stories.

There will be, as in past years, booths for produce, cakes, candies, white elephants, books, post office, bargain basement, pets and the delicatessen booth which features all kinds of goodies made from special recipes of the women of the Church.

This year will be featured a special handkerchief booth and one for artificial flowers.

There will be two photographers to take on-the-spot pictures: William Cartee and Ron Kiesel.

Holy Family Guild Holds Luncheon

A group of 30 members of the Holy Family Guild met at the home of Mrs. Edward Ravizza for a luncheon and meeting, one of a series to be given in Marin County.

Mrs. Joseph DeMartini, one of the directors (the other is Mrs. Amelie Smith) provided the lasagne that was served.

The project of the group is the purchase of a car for the Sisters of the Holy Family who teach religion throughout the county.

Kay Park Picnic

The Kay Park Home Owners Assn. will hold its annual picnic Sunday at 3:30 o'clock in the Kay Park playground. Mrs. Daniel Mulcahy is chairman. After luncheon there will be games for both children and grown-ups.

One game will be held the next day, Labor Day, when a father-son baseball game is scheduled at 1 p.m.

MAPS PROGRAM

Sun Valley Club Starts New Term

When the Sun Valley Parents Club held its first executive board meeting recently, John Gilleran, president, welcomed Miss Edwina Codoni, principal and first vice president; Fred Holzinger, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Mark Brown, recording secretary and Ralph Green, treasurer. Mrs. Raymond Kemper, corresponding secretary, was unable to attend. The program committee members and room mothers were also in attendance. Mrs. R. A. Camper was appointed room mother chairman.

A varied and stimulating program is being planned for the year 1959-1960. The first general meeting will be held on Oct. 7 at 8 p.m. in the kindergarten room. After a short business meeting the parents may visit their children's rooms and meet the teachers. Three more general meetings are being planned for the school year. One program will be a panel discussion plus the nomination of officers for the coming year.

Several social events are planned for the year, beginning with a pot luck dinner on Sept. 24. So that everyone can get acquainted right from the beginning, this will be a "family affair."

Guild's Fashion Carnival To Offer Bargains Galore

Bargains galore is the promise of Mrs. Raymond Cerutti, chairman for the forthcoming Second Annual Fashion Carnival, sponsored by St. Raphael's Mothers' Guild.

The event is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 19, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., and Sunday, Sept. 20, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the social hall of the school auditorium.

Encouraged by the success of last year's initial venture into the sale of new clothing at greatly reduced prices, the guild committee has again secured a handsome selection of dresses, blouses, skirts and other sportswear items from two well-known dress shops.

A limited number of afternoon and cocktail gowns will be available but greater emphasis is placed on sportswear and separates for fall and winter casual wear.

Mrs. Cerutti and co-chairman, Mrs. Raymond Taylor, are pleased over the selection of skirts, both all-wools and blends, that they will be able to offer in a wide range of styles and sizes.

MV Folk Dancers To Begin Classes

Mill Valley Folk Dancers will start an 11-weeks course for beginners in folk and square dancing on Sept. 17.

Mickey McGowan will be the instructor for the classes, which will be held from 8 to 9 p.m. in the Outdoor Art Clubhouse.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Charles A. Hardy, who lives at 153 Manor drive, Mill Valley.

THE EVENT will be held at Middlefield Farm in Novato, the country estate of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray in Novato. Invitations for this event have been extended to more than 30 clubs in California. Working on the affair are, left to right, Wanda Smith, Ellen Martinelli and Lynne Baas. (Independent-Journal photos)

Convention Of Bank Women Set Sept. 23

Catherine B. Cleary and Arline Laedtke, co-chairmen of the program committee for the 1959 Convention of the National Assn. of Bank Women, announce 32 Association members will participate in program sessions related to professional banking subjects. Miss Cleary is vice president of the First Wisconsin Trust Co., Milwaukee. Miss Laedtke is assistant cashier of the First National Bank, Oshkosh, Wis.

Sessions of this 37th National Convention of the Association are scheduled to be held at Hotel Schroeder in Milwaukee, Sept. 23-25. Miss Marie B. Loeber, cashier, Wisconsin State Bank, Milwaukee, is general convention chairman.

Dr. V. Ernestine Moore, personnel director, Wilmington Trust Co., Wilmington, Del., will present a major address on the subject of letter writing on Thursday morning, Sept. 24. Dr. Moore has chosen, "It's the Style" as the topic of her speech.

Salesmanship will be the subject of Mrs. Mildred Muller, assistant cashier, First National Bank of Memphis, Memphis, Tenn., also a featured speaker at the Thursday morning session.

MIDDLEFIELD FARM

Credit Women Plan Wine Tasting Party

Roving musicians will entertain members and their invited guests at the Second Annual Wine Tasting sponsored by the Credit Women's Breakfast Club of Marin County, to be held Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13, commencing at 3 o'clock.

Middlefield Farm in Novato, the country estate of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray, will be the setting for this gala affair. Invitations have been sent more than 30 Credit Women's Clubs in California, and it is expected that the arrival of members from these clubs will increase the Wine Tasting attendance to well over 300.

The Marin County Credit Women's Breakfast Club was organized in 1956 by credit women from various organizations in the county who realized the need for improving their knowledge of credit. With an extensive education offered by this international organization, the Marin County branch has increased its membership in two years to over 30 members.

The Second Annual Wine Tasting chairman, Wanda Smith, has announced the following committees and chairmen: tickets, Loretto O'Rourke; hostesses, Lynne Baas; publicity, Ellen Martinelli; entertainment, Caroline Fooshee; refreshments, Mildred Carpenter; awards, Rachael Gorb and Adele Davis.

Chicago Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. George Belsey Jr. of Chicago, with their young daughter, Brooke, have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Armstrong of Sausalito. Mrs. Belsey is Mrs. Armstrong's sister and their mother, Mrs. George Brooks of Los Angeles was a guest at the same time.

Career Advancement Project Of Business Women's Club

Career advancement, one of the major projects of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs Federation, is being highlighted by the Marin Club and will provide the theme for the meeting on Oct. 26 when Ada M. Fusselman, chairman of the career advancement committee, is in charge.

In memory of two charter members of the club, outstanding in the field of education, Alice Brewer Wells and Isabel Cook, two scholarship loans were established many years ago.

The Alice Brewer Wells fund will now become an educational scholarship while the Isabel Cook memorial will remain as a revolving loan fund available to both girl students and women.

A scholarship of $200 will be awarded annually and will be available to an accredited girl senior at high school or a College of Marin girl, regardless of race, color or creed. The awards will be made on the basis of character, scholarship, personality and need.

On the screening committee will be members of the career advancement committee and the club president.

Mrs. Fusselman announces that to secure the viewpoint of educational leaders, she has invited as speakers at the Oct. 26 dinner meeting the deans of women of the high schools in the county and the dean of women at College of Marin.

On Mrs. Fusselman's committee are Maude Gardner, Letha Jenkins and Dorothy Olsen.

The club will have a business meeting at a dinner at the West End Villa on Tuesday night, Sept. 8, with Dr. Betty Fawcett, president, presiding. Saturday, Sept. 19 will be the club's annual fun night at Keaton's Shack in Sonoma County. A barbecue dinner will be followed by dancing. Jean Brown is chairman.

Opening Meeting Of Sausalito Club Will Be Sept. 10

The Sausalito Woman's Club begins its 1959-1960 season on Thursday, Sept. 10 with a business meeting for members only. Mrs. Richard F. Phillips, the Club's new president, will preside for the first time.

Floral decorations for the opening meeting and during the month of September will be by Mrs. John C. Alexander who is second vice-president. Mrs. George R. Chapman, hospitality chairman, has asked Mrs. Wint F. Saint and Mrs. Frank B. Williams to greet members at the door and pouring during the tea hour, Mrs. Sylvester McAtee, a past president, and Mrs. Max Pollak. Assisting Mrs. Justin M. Day on tea duties will be Mrs. Leonard G. James, another past president and Mrs. Mervyn Cowen.

Two Hostess Bridal Shower

Honoring Mrs. John Pereira Jr., the former Audrey Zappella, a bridal shower was given recently by Mrs. Harold Genazzi and Mrs. Mary Baptiste at the latter's San Rafael home. A large ring with a miniature bridal couple, was surrounded with many gifts. Cenering the refreshment table were two cakes, shaped as hearts, on which was written: "Best wishes Audrey and John." The cakes were topped with two wedding rings and encircled with flowers. Also in the arrangement were a miniature bride and bridegroom with tall tapers at either side.

The junior Mr. and Mrs. Pereira were married at El Tahoe on July 11 and are now residing in Petaluma.

Guests at the shower were the bride, her mother-in-law, Mrs. John Pereira, two aunts, Mrs. Ambrose Soldavini and Mrs. Mario Soldavini, two cousins, Mrs. Robert Soldavini and Mrs. Myron Cook, also Mesdames Thomas Gamble, Marianna Sequeria, Joseph Sequeria, Fred Genazzi, Mary Benevedes, Elmo Finnerty, Richard Benadom, Ardell Bowers, Harold Marple, Augustine Flieller, Joseph Milani, Louis Milani, Frank Milani, Misses Betty and Barbara Horick, Celeste Sequeria and Donna Grimm.

Children who do not go for tomatoes may accept stewed ones in a mildly flavored chili con carne.

CALERUEGA TO BE SETTING FOR DOMINICAN FASHION LUNCHEON

Caleruega, the handsome new dining hall on the Dominican College campus in San Rafael, is the site chosen by the Dominican Alumnae Associations for their annual fashion show-luncheon scheduled for 12:30 on Saturday, Sept. 26.

Fall fashions from a San Francisco store will be modeled by Mesdames Hugh Allen, R. K. McCulloch, George Goddard, Vincent Sullivan, Jerome Rosenthal, Robert Fair, John Barrett, John Keefe, Alfred Ghilarducci, William Donahoe and Miss Lola Casentini.

Arrangements for the show are being made by Mrs. Henry Grandin Jr. and Mrs. Robert Riedy, co-chairmen, assisted by Miss Patricia Farbstein, Miss Barbara Cavanaugh and Mesdames Douglas K. Duncan, James Howell and G. R. Williams.

Mrs. E. S. Malley of San Rafael is reservations chairman.

Double 8 Squares

A square dance party given by the Double 8 Squares will take place at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley on Saturday, Sept. 5. Open to the public, the dancing is to start at 8:30 p.m. with caller Merle Basum. Refreshments will be served later in the evening.

In New Home

The Orville Boyers, formerly of San Anselmo, have moved into the first new house to be constructed on Harbor Point, Strawberry, which was built by William H. McDevitt Co. of San Rafael.

Plan enough leftovers when boiling potatoes to make a family dish of creamed or au gratin potatoes and hot or cold potato salad.

Raymond Rehers Are Entertained In Bostick Home

Honoring the Raymond R. Rehers who are moving from Seafirth to Corte Madera was a recent no host party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Benton Bostick Jr.

Enjoying the dinner in the Bostick home which has a sweeping view of the East Bay were Drs. and Mrs. Frank Kelly and Peter De Vries and Messrs. and Mesdames L. R. Peterson, W. B. Franklin, Henry Chapman, Ernest Box and Bertram West all of Seafirth and Messrs. and Mesdames John Shepard of Mill Valley and James Ziegler of Little Reed Heights. Also at the affair was Miss Dorothy Upper of Los Angeles, house guests of the Wests.

Elegance Of Vincent Originals Delights Fashion Focus Guests

Elizabeth Vincent, the dramatic San Francisco designer of brilliant custom originals and the newly formed Marin Friends of Vallombrosa brewed a magic afternoon on Tuesday for nearly 400 women from all over the Bay Area who came to enjoy the rare public showing of Mrs. Vincent's designs.

So "Very San Francisco" were the notable town suits, theater ensembles and ball gowns that the completely captivated audience found themselves quickly shifting their Marin summer mood to one of eager anticipation of autumn and the San Francisco season.

For the guests who did not know about Vallombrosa in Menlo Park, Marion Bellamy, Fashion Focus coordinator, explained a little of its interesting history since being purchased from the Hopkins family 15 years ago as a retreat house for women owned by the San Francisco archdiocese.

Vallombrosa is a quiet and lovely place where the retreatant goes for a weekend away from the hustle and bustle of everyday living, and there in contemplative meditation finds that true values reassert themselves and old problems find new solutions.

So that the many women who wish to go on retreat at lovely Vallombrosa may be accommodated, The Marin Friends of Vallombrosa and those in other counties of the archdiocese are working on a building fund program to add new buildings on the spacious grounds.

TOWN TIMES

At fashion show time, Elizabeth Vincent gave everyone an afternoon of elegance to long remember. For "Very San Francisco" town times, Mrs. Vincent believes in the role of the suit exemplified in four distinctive suit shapes: a black and white bold imported wool check, long line jacket and exaggerated stand up collar; a rusty tweed short cropped jacket suit; a costume ensemble of black wool jersey sheath and long sleeved Chanel jacket; and gray menswear wool nipped at the waist and importantly collared.

Afternoon in San Francisco, the Elizabeth Vincent way, introduced pure silk in an understated sea blue sheath worn with furs, and a costume ensemble, collarless pearl buttoned navy coat to chaperon a navy, green and black fitted sheath flounced at the knee.

Black was the magic for the theater and dinner circuit; a standout the black ripple taffeta, its beautiful big sleeves and bell skirt provocatively accented with an eight-inch cinnamon cumberbund forming a double French bow.

Few adjectives were left to describe the magnificent ball gowns after the guests had used so many superlatives to describe the suits, theater and dinner fashions. For sheer elegance of fabric, color and styling the opera and ball gowns were true conversation pieces at home in San Francisco or any cosmopolitan city in the world.

Adding much to the San Francisco flavor of the day were the elaborate and distinctive late-day coiffures created for the glamorous models by a San Rafael salon. Another conversation starter were the Fresen earrings, so many handsome styles to choose from, each resting on the "Fresen" which does not clamp or clip but restly lightly in the shell of the ear as a frame for the face.

CREAM SATIN

Piece de resistance, the Elizabeth Vincent gowns:

"Whipped Cream Satin," tucked into a hundred pleats falling to the floor from a cinnamon satin cummerbund and a strapless standaway bodice; Mrs. Charles Trost to show it handsomely.

"Black Magic," pleated to emphasize the full black satin skirt and the tiny waist; a cape of matching Italian fabric to discreetly cover the tiny strapped bodice, Mrs. Paul McCardle the attractive accent.

"Red Velvet," a statuesque vision, Mrs. John de Maria curved in luscious red velvet from strapless bodice to ankle, then poufed in a swirl of red velvet and white satin.

"Ice Blue Satin," Mrs. Alfred Oyster's brunetteness a perfect foil for a magnificent ball gown handsomely encrusted with pearls and brilliants; the back dipping lower than the front, large poufs cascading elegantly.

"Red Satin," a polite cover-up, high necked, brief sleeved and caught with a round black satin belt; the fullness of the red satin skirt caught tight at the knee with accent of black satin, Mrs. Francis Walsh modeling it with flair.

"Gold Brocade," shimmering in the noon day sun, resplendent with deeper gold brocade chrysanthemums; Mrs. William Donohoe the dazzler in the floor length slim line opera sheath accented only with black poufs of brocade.

"Black Jersey," in a dramatic masterpiece of curved perfection for Mrs. Robert Mattos; folds of black jersey provocatively tucked from strapless bodice to the ankle, then stiffened to flare into a tremendous flounce.

Next Tuesday, Fall Fashion ABC's will be taught at Fashion School in an afternoon of fashion and fun for mothers and children before school begins. Members of the Jolly Roger Chapter of the Children's Home Society and their children will model the alphabet of Marin Fashion from 14 stores with surprise in store for the children. Reservations are open to the public and may be made by calling Rickey's.

PROUDLY DISPLAYING a silver platter, one of five pieces of silver to be awarded at the Sept. 10, Hamilton Air Force Base Officers' Wives Club Luncheon is Mrs. Emmert Lentz. Mrs. Lentz is on the committee planning the luncheon which will be hosted by the Odds and Ends group at the base. One piece will be awarded to the first person asking the mystery newcomer her identity. (Air Force photo)

'Get Acquainted' Theme Set For Officers' Wives Event

Only the location of the Hamilton Air Force Base Officers' Wives Club September luncheon has been changed because of the recent fire in a portion of the Officers' Club at the base.

The date, Sept. 10, and time, 1 p.m. are the same. The location will be Rickey's Rancho, Ignacio.

The theme—"Get Acquainted"—will be accented with an eye to extending a special welcome to all newcomers.

To help insure that all newcomers will meet each other and old members of the OWC a piece of silver will be awarded to the first person identifying the mystery newcomers. Newcomers may be identified by their powder puff name tags.

This mystery newcomer will not reveal her identity to anyone whether she is or isn't the MN but will give the name of the first person asking her to the general chairman, Mrs. W. C. Dorn.

Assisting Mrs. Dorn are Mesdames Robert Williams and Griffith Llewellyn, decorations; Herbert Lindstrum, publicity and Howard Olson, sherry. Aiding Mrs. Olson are Mesdames K. L. Sigler, Charles H. Bradley, Emmert Lentz and John W. Vesowate.

Mexico Fiesta Planned By Sausalito Club

The Fall dance of the Sausalito Woman's Club, "A Mexican Fiesta" has been scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 19th at the clubhouse. Mrs. Laurence T. Cohn, general chairman, heads the committee working to insure the success of the first fund raising event in the regime of the new president, Mrs. Richard F. Phillips. Mrs. Denton N. Erskine is handling reservations which close Sept. 17.

A cocktail hour starting at 8 o'clock has been planned as a "get acquainted" opportunity for new members and their escorts. Mayor and Mrs. Howard Sievers will greet guests while Mrs. L. S. M. Beckett checks reservations.

The bar will be manned by Dr. Merrell A. Sisson and Messrs. William V. Lynch and William K. McNaught wtih Mrs. Earl G. Thompson responsible for set-ups.

The dinner, an authentic Mexican menu, will be served at 8:30 o'clock amid the colorful decor planned by Sausalito artist, Nan Street Fowler. Assisting on the decoration committee are Mmes. Richard E. Cruikshank, George Eickmeyer, William K. McNaught, Arnold Seymour, Robert Walt and John Ward.

Mexican garb for those attending the dance is encouraged but is not mandatory. The Latin American band of Chico Ochoas will start playing for dancing at 9 o'clock and features an outstanding soloist.

CHAMPAGNE PARTY WILL OPEN DECORS DE MAISON ET BOUTIQUE

The annual Decors de Maison et Boutique, given by the Dominican College Alumnae Assn., will open this year with a gala champagne dinner party, according to Mrs. William Donahoe, chairman.

Mrs. Donahoe and her co-chairman, Mrs. Earl Dolcina, will greet guests at the preview to the eighth annual Decors de Maison et Boutique at Caleruega, the new dining hall on the Dominican campus in San Rafael on Thursday evening, Oct. 22.

The Decors section of this double-barrelled show, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ray Hamilton, will be held again at Meadowlands on the Dominican campus while the Boutique section, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Rakow, will be held at Pennafort.

Proceeds from the Decors de Maison et Boutique, which will be open to the public on Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons, Oct. 23, 24 and 25, go to the Mother Mary Raymond Scholarship Fund and the college building fund.

No Knobby Knees To Show On Red Side Iron Curtain

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP)—There will be no knobby knees showing on the Communist side of the Iron Curtain if the fashion authorities at the Leipzig Fair have anything to say about it—and they probably do.

The fair's international fashion show, one of the biggest in the Communist bloc, opened Monday. There was not a knee in sight. And no uneven hemlines, seven-eighths length tunics or other frills from Paris.

No sacks, either, though East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht recently said the sack was all right—if the wearer could afford it.

About 1,500 spectators paid up to six marks—$1.40—to see the show. Most of them were ordinary Leipzigers, to judge by the drab East European look of their own clothes. A good half were men.

They sat for over two hours in Leipzig's main Concert Hall to see over 200 numbers from East and West Germany, Poland, Holland, France and the Soviet Union. Most came from East Germany.

Each skirt was almost exactly the same length, about an inch and a half below the knee. The wide spreading skirt was in high favor and necklines were prim.

Moscow's House of Models showed 20 items, some surprisingly graceful and elegant to Western observers who expected only no-nonsense styles from the Soviets. One tight-fitting afternoon ensemble with a short fur jacket, called "anthracite," would not have been out of place in a good Paris show.

Breakfast's Over

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UPI)—Breakfast has gone the way of the five-cent cup of coffee in one hotel here. Highland Hotel manager Vincent J. Guarino said he had to end breakfast service because people were eating too little, too fast.

The Answer: Buying Ideas!

ALL GOODS and services are sold in the mind before they are sold over the counter. Our inner minds are LOADED with buying ideas, call them needs or desires if you will, just waiting to be triggered into action by the right stimulus. The chief stimulus, in Marin, is advertising in the Independent-Journal, the newspaper that is paid for, wanted, and delivered daily to 5 out of 7 Marin homes. It's the place where Marinites look for the goods and services to fill their needs and turn dreams into realities. That's why I-J advertising gets such amazing results, whether you run a full page in color or a little classified ad!

If You Take Time Off From Tots For While It May Be Beneficial

Take time off from your children occasionally? A week away from them? Or a weekend? Some folks can't do that. Others can, profitably.

Time off gives you a change of pace. You can slow up. You can live a little for yourself. Many good mothers can't survive without time off. Other good mothers can't stand the thought of separation from their wee ones.

Time off takes preparation. If your children aren't properly prepared and well cared for they suffer. Real damage can be done. Your children's welfare comes first. If you can't provide proper care for them while you're away, don't go. The best arrangement is to leave them in your home. Then everything is familiar and comfortable. Be sure they know and like the person who'll take charge. Grandmothers usually are best for the job. But you may have to rely on a woman the children haven't met before. Have her come ahead of time. Before you leave your children should feel they know her well and can trust her.

Be sure your regular routines are followed while you're away. It's no time to experiment with anything new, not even a strange vegetable at dinner. Naps are especially important. Leave your house clean. Be sure your larder is well stocked. Catch up with the laundry. Then your substitute mother can concentrate on taking good care of your children. That's her most important job.

A lot of work for a little time off? Yes, it is. But the result is peace of mind while you're gone. And happier children when you return. Try it and see.

MARINITE GOES SHOPPING IN KABUL

Barbara L. Wilmoth (left) of 1222 Fourth street, San Rafael, a former civilian employee at Hamilton Air Force Base, and fellow Californian Marian Hubert look over merchandise at a stall in bazaar of Kabul, Afghanistan. Kabul is "home" to Miss Wilmoth, a secretary there with the International Cooperation Administration. Jobs in such out-of-the-way places are offered by the ICA, which will have a representative, Frances Stokes, at the California Department of Employment in San Francisco for 10 days beginning next Tuesday.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

'Propaganda' Charged

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee charged today that the Pentagon's information organization is acting like a propaganda ministry to an alarming degree.

"Confusion has replaced candor in areas of vital importance to the survival of a democratic society," the House Government Information subcommittee said in a report to Congress. The subcommittee is headed by Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.).

Ignores Signal

RAWLINS, Wyo. (AP)—Careful driver Don Ethridge of Salem, Ore., approached an intersection and thrust out his arm to indicate a stop. A boxer dog bounded alongside, eyed Ethridge's dangling fingers and bit him on the hand.

Parade Or Else

NEW YORK (UPI) — Officials of District Council 9 of the Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers Union warned the Union's 8,500 members not to brush off this year's Labor Day parade.

Those who do will be fined, the union announced yesterday.

Human Sacrifice

BOMBAY, India (UPI) — A childless couple has gone on trial in northern Bombay state for murdering a 4-year-old girl as a human sacrifice to the Hindu deity Amba, goddess of fertility, reports reaching here said today. The medicine man who advised the murder also was being tried.

Start Jet Service

NEW YORK (UPI)—American Airlines announced last night that it intended to start nonstop Boeing 707 jet flagship service between New York and San Francisco Nov. 1.

It said there would be two daily flights in each direction. The Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington earlier authorized the airline to begin the service.

In Quarantine

DEDHAM, Mass. (AP)—Patrolman Eugene J. McCarthy, 29, has been placed in quarantine for two weeks because he tried to revive a dying polio victim with mouth-to-mouth respiration.

Cordial Welcome

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Steve Otero, 34, was arrested for allegedly holding up the same market four times. "I kept going back there because the owner was so nice," he told police.

Newscasts Exempted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed a bill providing that radio and television stations don't have to give equal time to political candidates on news programs.

The vote yesterday was 142-70 on a compromise worked out in a Senate-House conference. The Senate now must approve it before it goes to the President.

The exempted broadcasts include bona fide newscasts, news interviews such as panel shows, news documentaries and on-the-spot coverage of actual news events.

Insecticide Research

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House passed a bill yesterday which would authorize a $2,285,000-a-year boost in an Interior Department research program on the effects of insecticides and fungicides on fish and wildlife. The bill now goes back to the Senate, which passed a different version earlier.

Nikita Visits Exhibit

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev scheduled a surprise farewell visit to the American exhibition today.

The show, which closes tomorrow, has been a solid sellout since it opened in Moscow July 24, attracting as many as 75,000 Soviet visitors in one day. No formal closing ceremonies had been planned for it.

Asks Brotherhood

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Legion's new national commander, Martin B. McKneally, says the Legion "should be in the forefront in promoting brotherhood and should be the leader in allaying prejudice."

He made the statement in promising action to have racial restrictions lifted by the Legion's fun-making organization, the 40 and 8.

The 40 and 8 limits its membership to whites and American Indians.

Nimitz Returns Sword

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, who brought two valuable swords home from Japan as souvenirs of World War II, is sending them back.

The wartime commander in the Pacific gave the treasures to Junzo Sato, who came to the United States seeking historic swords taken at war's end.

Sato, who represents the Japanese Sword Preservation Assn. left for Tokyo yesterday.

Plague Found In Animals At Yosemite

BERKELEY (UPI) — Bubonic plague exists among chipmunks and ground squirrels in certain areas of Yosemite National Park, State Director of Public Health Malcolm H. Merrill said yesterday.

The disease was found by state and U.S. Public Health Department experts who conducted a field survey in the park after Jerold Lindsey, an 11-year-old Boy Scout from Walnut Creek, contracted bubonic plague in June.

He was treated and cured.

Merrill said vacationers planning trips to Yosemite have nothing to fear in spite of the findings.

The areas of the survey, Tuolumne Meadows and Lake Tenaya, are in the park's high country and the plague was already known to exist in high back-country areas of California, Merrill said.

Adventist School To Launch New Term Tuesday

The Marin County Seventh-day Adventist Elementary School will open next Tuesday at 9 a.m. at 75 Park road in Fairfax.

James Hawkins will be the new principal. He comes from the Pacific Union College at Angwin. He and his wife and baby will reside at Novato.

The school's curriculum will match that of the public schools but with the addition of courses of religious instruction.

The school here is one of a chain of some 5,000 educational units operated by Seventh-day Adventists around the world. These range from simple mission schools to complex college organizations such as the College of Medical Evangelists in Los Angeles.

Former Marinites Married 50 Years

Former San Anselmo residents Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sturgeon celebrated their golden wedding recently at their home in Delhi, near Turlock.

Among the 100 relatives and guests present were several from Marin County. They included Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sturgeon of Hamilton Air Force Base, Mr. and Mrs. Nyal Liversage and Inez Buckler of San Anselmo, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olson of San Rafael.

The couple married in Wisconsin 50 years ago and lived in San Anselmo for about 10 years before moving to Delhi. Sturgeon, about 75 years old, is a retired carpenter.

Merger Set By Standard Of Jersey

NEW YORK (AP) — Standard Oil Co. (N.J.) said yesterday it will merge all principal affiliated companies in the United States into a nationwide organization.

As a starter, Humble Oil & Refining Co. of Houston, Tex., will be merged into Jersey, which already holds 90 per cent of Humble's outstanding stock.

Humble is one of the country's largest oil producing companies.

Prior to the Jersey-Humble merger, a new Humble Oil and Refining Co. will be incorporated in Delaware. Humble's properties and operations will be transferred to the new corporation. Following the merger, the present company, which was incorporated in Texas, will be dissolved.

Next, Jersey's remaining affiliates in the United States will be merged into the new Humble company.

Battle Of Bells May Erupt Again In Valley Town

STRATHMORE, Tulare County (UPI)—The battle of the bells threatens to erupt again in this small San Joaquin Valley community.

The leading bell-objector is M. E. Parrott, who lives in retirement near the Presbyterian Church. He described automatic chimes installed at the church "as the most annoying thing I ever lived by."

The chimes were installed about six months ago after residents contributed $500 for a memorial to Fire Chief Ted Iles, who burned to death two years ago. The chimes sounded 632 notes a day, from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m., four times hourly.

Parrott circulated a petition which was signed by 53 other residents two months ago. Rev. Luke Fritz, the church pastor, then changed the starting time to 8 a.m. and also softened the chimes.

But, Parrott said, he isn't satisfied and may reinstate his campaign for silence.

One Too Many

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—Susie B. Smith sought an injunction in district court against J. R. Smith to keep him from using the name Smith on his cafe, near the plantiff's restaurant with the same name.

Teamster Fined $280 For Drunken Driving

John Francis Crooks, 43, a teamster from Sharp Park, drew a $280 fine and one year probation for his first drunken driving offense. Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Crooks for drunken driving on Highway 101 on Aug. 21.

Vintage Autos To Tour Marin

Forty vintage automobiles will tour Marin County in caravan Sunday as part of the second biennial "weekend in San Francisco" of the San Francisco Regional Group, Horseless Carriage Club.

The cars from throughout California, with their passengers dressed in period costumes of their cars, will tour the Bay Bridge, the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, and the Golden Gate Bridge in a reliability run.

The entourage should arrive in San Rafael about noon Sunday, then will go through Kentfield, Larkspur, Corte Madera before stopping in Tiburon for lunch at the Corinthian Yacht Club.

George Washington died on Dec. 14, 1799.

Corte Madera Has August Building Boom

Construction activity boomed in Corte Madera last month, with $1,195,767 in building permits representing the second highest monthly total in the town's history.

The August figure was exceeded only in March, 1958, when the value of permits was $3,327,043, said Building Inspector William G. McBride.

The record month last year reflected a spurt of applications which preceded adoption of a new town zoning ordinance.

McBride said last month's total included permits for three new Corte Madera Shopping Center buildings valued at $766,352. They are a Montgomery Ward and Co. retail store, a Ward's auto service center and a branch of San Rafael's First National Bank.

Permits were issued for 22 one-family homes, including 16 in Mariners Cove subdivision and four in Madera Gardens.

Sausalito August Building Permits Total $145,590

Building permits in Sausalito for August totaled $145,590, it was reported today.

Five permits were taken out for new construction, including a swimming pool and a three-unit dwelling.

Permits for the same month last year totaled $557,139, but the higher figure reflected a large apartment building.

Permits for July totaled only $29,538.

Cleaners Opened At Corte Madera

Hudson Cleaners, a dry cleaning establishment formerly operated as Cooper's Cleaners, has opened at 30 Tamalpais drive, Corte Madera, under management of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hudson.

The couple recently acquired the business from Harry N. Cooper, former Corte Madera mayor. Cooper now has a similar business in Albany.

Hudson also is a sign painter. Headquarters for Hudson Signs is at the rear of the cleaning establishment.

Drunkard To End Run This Sunday

"The Drunkard," currently being presented at the Sausalito Little Theater at 745½ Bridgeway boulevard, will end this weekend. The "melodrama" started its run last May.

There will be three more performances—at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday. The performance on Sunday is a special one, since the play has not been regularly scheduled on Sundays.

Butter Removed From Surplus Sales List

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government yesterday removed butter from the list of surplus farm products it has for sale.

Stocks are about depleted, and the Agriculture Department said the supplies now on hand will be needed for the government-sponsored school lunch program.

San Rafael's Exchange Pupil From Copenhagen Likes U.S.

Yosemite Trip, First Movie Early 'Treats'

SISTER FOR A YEAR — Nina Knudsen from Denmark stands in the swimming pool of the Frederick (Harry) Evans family of San Rafael, who will be her family during the year she attends San Rafael High School as an American Field Service exchange student. Both she and Judy Evans, her poolside companion, are 16. (Independent-Journal photo)

A tall, slender and smiling 16-year-old named Nina Knudsen will be San Rafael High School's American Field Service exchange student this school year.

Her immediate reaction to the United States—in the two weeks she has been here — is: "I like it."

The family with whom she is staying, the Frederick (Harry) Evans family of 25 Moncada way in San Rafael's Country Club Estates, reports that Nina has been unsuccessful in her search so far to find an American "Danish pastry" that tastes like a real Danish pastry.

TAKES SENIOR COURSES

At San Rafael High School she will take senior courses in English and California civics, United States history, second year French and gym.

When she returns to Denmark she will have two more years at Holte Gymnasium before she receives a diploma which will enable her to enter a university. Already she has studied English for five years (plus a summer vacation spent in England), German for four years and Latin for two years.

Going to school in Denmark is more time consuming than going to school in this country. Students have classes six days a week. A normal school day starts at 8 a.m. and continues until 2:10 p.m. It needs one hour earlier on Saturday.

LONG SCHOOL YEAR

The school year is longer. This year it began on Aug. 12. The summer vacation is only six weeks long.

Nina's father, Erik Hubertz Knudsen, is Danish representative of a British textile company. She has a younger sister, Telse, who is 13.

Her adopted American family consists of Evans, who is sales representative of Crane Packing Co. in South San Francisco; Mrs. Evans; Judy, who is 16 and a junior at San Rafael High School, and Jack, 11, who attends San Pedro School.

Nina already has had a three-day stay in Yosemite with them and has seen her first movie in this country.

GREATEST IMPRESSION

What made the greatest impression on her was not the movie but the man sitting in front of her. He sat through the entire film ("Porgy and Bess") with a transistor radio in his lap, listening to a baseball game via an earpiece.

Among her own age group, it seems to her that everyone drives a car in this country. "They never talk about walking," she said with a smile. In her own country, walking and bicycle riding are the usual means that a student has of getting from one point to another. Eighteen is the minimum age for getting a driver's license.

But Nina will be riding in a car, herself, once school starts. She and Judy will get to San Rafael High School by means of Judy's regular car ride.

California Imports Experts To Help In Fire-Fighting

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Fifteen fire-fighting experts from other states have been brought to California to help combat the worst outbreak of forest fires since 1924.

Charles A. Connaughton, U.S. regional forester, said these experts were brought in from Pennsylvania, Florida, Louisiana, Georgia, North Carolina, Wisconsin and Missouri "to beef up our forces." All are U.S. Forest Service employees. They are being assigned to national forest of Northern and Central California.

Although rains normally come to Northern California by mid-September, the Forest Service said forecasts indicate this September may be a dry month, aggravating the drought which to a large extent has been responsible for the bad fires this year.

The Forest Service says, "Eight out of 10 fires this year have been caused by man." Of the 1,088 fires in national forests up to Aug. 15, at least 511 were man-caused.

Nearly twice as many were man-caused this year as in 1958, as dry conditions increased the hazard.

Extreme Caution Against Fires Urged By State

SANTA ROSA (UPI)—The state Division of Forestry warned Californians today to use extreme care during the Labor Day weekend to prevent fires in the north coast region.

More than 50,000 acres of wildlands have been burned so far this year in the region. Deputy State Forester C. W. Fairbank said the lengthy drought and exceptionally bad fire conditions are likely to cause an outbreak of September fires.

The division issued a series of charts which showed that the number of fires in the region during the eight-month period—Jan. 1 to Aug. 31, 1959—exceeded the number for the entire year of 1955. About 600 fires have blazed so far this year; only about 575 fires burned during 1955.

Folsom Boys Show Plenty Of Ingenuity

FOLSOM (UPI)—The boys locked up in Folsom State Prison are a credit to the tradition of Yankee ingenuity.

According to Warden Robert Heinze, "almost anything you can buy on the outside these fellows can improvise in here."

In the liquor department, for instance, Heinze said that his 2,500-odd inmates had distilled pleasure in everything from nail kegs to fruit jars.

It was even reported that one convict had a complete, portable liquor still concealed on his person: copper tubing, cooler and connecting parts. All of it was cleverly dismantled, some in his trouser legs, some in his shirt and some in his sleeves—and hardly a bulge.

"I don't know about that one," Heinze said; "I've been here 16 years and I haven't seen it, but that doesn't mean it's impossible."

Associate Warden William B. Lawson told about the inventive felon who took the lens from an old movie projector to build an enlarging camera.

"He had some zinc plates and he insisted that he just wanted to do some engraving," Lawson said. "But we figured he was planning to engrave his own five or 10 dollar bills so we had to interrupt that career."

Years before skin divers invented the snorkel, a prisoner made a rubber-lined helmet with goggle eye-pieces and attached a length of hose to it for a snorkel-type breather. The inmate planned to escape through a 10-foot deep canal that ran under the prison from the nearby American River. The water turned a turbine in the prison power plant before it returned to the stream.

The convict put a dummy in his bed to pass the evening check, then waited in the prison yard for pitch black darkness. When it came, he stepped into the water with weights on his legs to keep him submerged and a floater on his snorkel to keep it on the surface.

"But he forgot one thing," Lawson said. "The water went through there like a millrace."

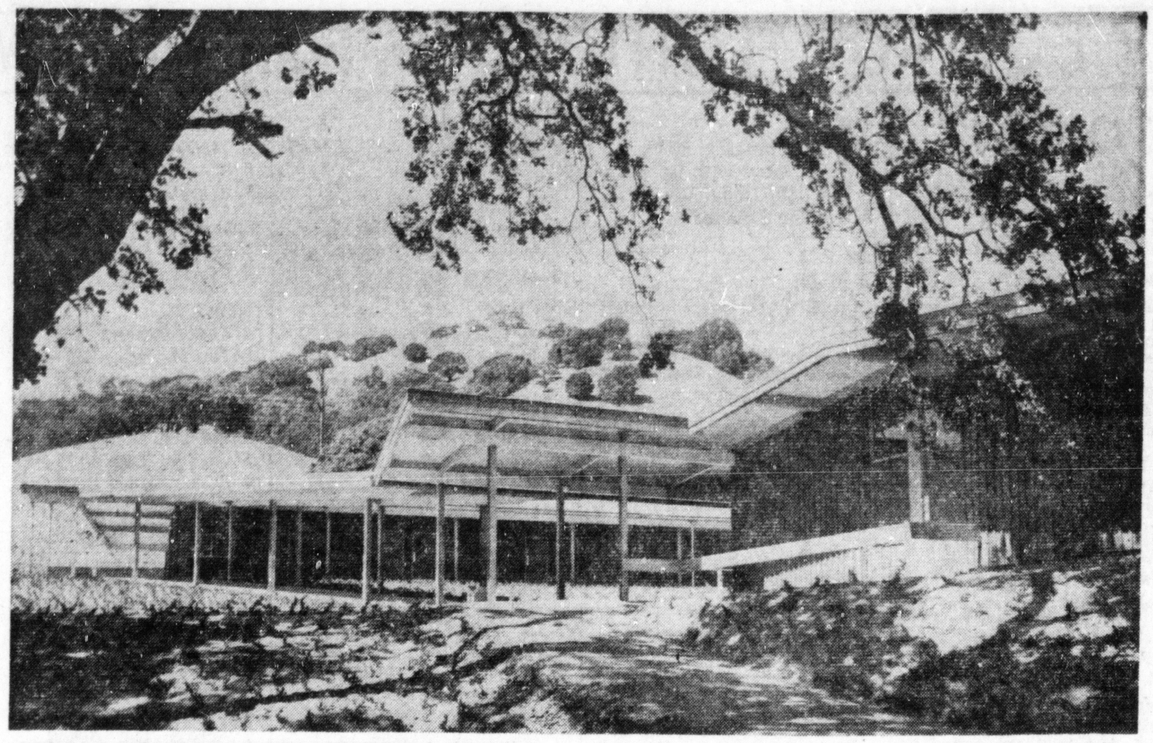
The strong current pulled the convict's air hose underwater and tumbled him so fast that he could not remove the weights from his legs.

They found his body — drowned—the next day," Lawson remembered.

Prison officials closed the canal sometime later when the power plant went out of use. They also installed steel cages around the openings to an underground drainage system that other prisoners had used for escape attempts.

Heinze and Lawson said they try to keep one jump ahead of the ingenious convicts.

"But we know that everytime we plug one loophole, they'll find another one. All they have to do is sit and think—they have all the time in the world," Lawson concluded.



NEW LUCAS VALLEY SCHOOL READY

The Lucas Valley School, shown here, will open its doors to pupils for the first time with opening of classes next Thursday. About 250 children in kindergarten through fifth grade are expected for the opening, according to Joseph B. Goff, assistant superintendent of Dixie School District. There will be eight teachers under Principal John W. King. Plans are already afoot to add to the school, which serves the Eichler Homes tract in Lucas Valley, for a sixth grade next year. Cost of site development and building totaled about $200,000. W. J. Kubon of San Rafael was the builder. John Lyon Reid and Associates designed the structure. (Independent-Journal photo)

Marin Shows Healthy Gain In Population

Marin County was second in rate of population expansion in the Bay Area last year, and was third in the 1950-59 period, the San Francisco Bay Area Council has announced.

Only Santa Clara County outstripped Marin in rate of growth last year, while Santa Clara and San Mateo topped Marin in the longer period since the 1950 census.

San Francisco, on the other hand, was the county which showed the slowest rate of growth in both categories.

Marin's population is estimated at 140,750, Santa Clara's at 602,400, San Mateo's at 409,000, and San Francisco's at 789,500.

Ewha University in Seoul, Korea, with an enrollment of 5,800, is the largest women's university in the world.
